ALL OVER GOR

03 DISORGANIZED THINKING

by Lady Wendie and Teal

Recently, the House of Yuroki company sent a mercenary to Genesian Port. This paid staff member was engaged for the purpose of determining the identity of the city's banker, whom it was believed could be approached to discuss trade alliances. Some of Gor may be acquainted with the fact that the former administrator of Genesian Port, a man called Liam, who resigned his position and left the city in strange circumstances.

Liam is a former warrior of Landa. Sadly that city has gone to dust. Liam, while he resided in Landa, tried to replace the former Ubar of Landa, the Rarius Yuroki. Liam failed miserably in his attempt at a take over the beautiful city. The Rarius Yuroki was firmly backed by the warriors of Landa. Something Liam has found impossible is to inspire his warriors.

While Liam was administrator of Genesian Port there has been no free trade between the Hoy Company and the Port. It appears that the animosity generated by the attempted coup squashed all ideas of peaceful friendship.

Not long ago the HoY received a message that Kalthheim, the head merchant of Genesian Port, wanted a meeting with the Rarius Yuroki, owner of the HoY. . Rarius Yuroki and his Taurentian left Tancred's Landing to attend this private conclave.

The Rarius, on arrival at the docks, was greeted by the head merchant, a man named Kalthheim. The merchant told the Rarius Yuroki that he and his man, the Taurentian, would be safe in Genesian Port. Kalthheim was eager to discuss a new trade route since he was not happy with the one he currently had. He reminded Yuroki, that Genesian Port was a member of the false Southern Trade Alliance of Turia. Kalthheim was not sure if this membership still existed. He was seen to shrug his shoulders when mentioning this fact.

Kalthheim, the head merchant, even went so far as to say, he would join the next meeting of the True Southern Alliance. It must be stated that this true alliance has not been joined by Turia.. Kalthheim went on to say that he wanted to be a guest at the meeting. He also stated that he would be bringing his leader along, a Gorean called Kade.

Yuroki and Kalthheim sat for a while, having refreshment and exchanging thoughts about trading as a whole. Suddenly, without warning, Kalthheim changed his mind and threatened the Rarius Yuroki and his bodyguard. Kalthheim screamed out, "Our discussions end here... you are allowed safe exit only. See that you do not return."

Later on our return to Tancreds landing we discussed the matter with a renowned scribe, It was then I was informed that although rare, a condition exists characterized by a breakdown of thought processes. Sometimes they can become very emotional delusions, paranoia, disorganized thinking, It can be very upsetting to witness.

The patient themselves have no idea it is happening they are oblivious to their ravings. It has no known cure, the physician Iskander of Turia is the authority on the subject. Iskander has put forward that the cause of the illness is thought to be stress from not achieving their ideals .

We can only hope Kalthheim will make a full recovery.

He was Iskander, said once to have been of Turia, the master of many medicines and one reputed to be knowledgeable in certain intricacies of the mind.
(Slave Girl of Gor, pg. 381)

OOO Quote of the day: "If people in Gor actually stayed IC and tried to roleplay things out instead of calling invalid, RP banning, etc. SL Gor would be the most awesome RP platform in the world."

# THE SLAVE'S CORNER

By Teal Razor ~ slave of Siri Emerald Jr ~ Captain Olni Scarlet's

DEAR TEAL ~ Dubious Advice to Goreans

DEAR TEAL:

I am a free woman. My best friend is a free woman. Recently she submitted to a free man. This was not a forced collaring in any way. I mean she did not appear with her assets displayed in the marketplace. She was very shy about her body. Now though, I see her in the commons wearing the briefest of silks. I have to avert my eyes while talking to her. It is really that embarrassing. My question is this, she tells me she is happy. Is she out of her ever loving mind?

DEAR DISCONCERTED:

I am sure that seeing your friend's body exposed in public is unnerving. For that, you have my sympathy. I too have seen my share of free women suddenly enslaved. They do tend to go prancing around brazenly, handing their mammary glands and other reproductive organs on a plate for the leering eyes of all who they come in contact with. Your question begs a deeper answer.

I will deal with the superficial question first. I would not doubt that your friend is happier being a slave. Slaves are subject to sex on demand. It is without hesitation that a supposition can be formed about your friend's obvious proclivity to sex and all of it's organic goodness. Now, don't get me wrong, free women are prone to such desires. However, it takes so long to remove the robes of concealment that their companion's patience will have disappeared long before they can take off the final garment. This makes it less likely that they will receive that for which they long.

I am sure you have answered your own question by now. Sex can be a powerful addiction and your friend seems to have it in spades. I think that your indentured acquaintance could have considered more carefully her "coming out" in the same city in which she is well known. I have dealt with that in past scrolls. To sum that one up, I always caution the free to slave, that she must move to another city for a short time, dye her hair, get a tan, change her name and come back with her Master to the city she loves. Once back in the city, she should refrain from telling the current slaves in town that she "used" to be a free woman. This could provoke instant disdain for her, a situation one does not want to find oneself in.

Now to the deeper question. There are times when we all want what another has. Slaves have no caste. Therefore, it could have its attractions. A caste member has responsibility to their caste. A slave has no responsibilities except to be exquisitely beautiful and absolutely obedient. Only a slave can be truly free. A free woman may desire to throw off responsibility and have a Master make all the decisions. A small trade off as she would be well taken care of. Speaking from my own perspective I believe that all women desire to be slaves. This fact has been set forth in the pages of the historian and chief scribe Master Norman. He wrote long ago that, "It is the nature of the female to submit; accordingly, it is natural that, when she is forced to acknowledge, accept, express and reveal this nature, that she should be almost deliriously joyful, and thankful, to her master; she has been taught her womanhood."

It really is the natural order of things. That being said, you must aspire to a type of slavery in whatever situation you find yourself. The only concern could be that the man to which you find yourself companioned is not one you could easily become enslaved to. The learning curve may be too steep.

Over all, the career changer could be successful in concealing their past walk in life but inside they will always be held back in some way by their own disquieting thoughts. These thoughts will range from not thinking they are good enough to, trying to lord it over the pond in which they believe themselves the largest fish.

I do not believe your friend is "out of her ever loving mind". She may truly be happy.

DEAR TEAL:

I am a slave who constantly wonders about things. Can you tell me why there is air?

DEAR INCREDIBLY DUMB:

You are performing an act which is unbecoming to a slave. You are curious. But since you have asked...we have air so that our Master's can breathe. Now get outta here.

DEAR TEAL:

My Master has just brought into the home a new slave. It has come to my knowledge that he paid more money for her than he did for me, a fact that she constantly reminds me of. How can I demonstrate to my Master that I am worth more than she is?

DEAR SOON TO GET KNEE PADS:

Obviously you need a refresher course or maybe you need some new techniques. I give private fellatio classes. When you see me in the commons, give me a signal that you want to sign up. Monday mornings are free and Friday nights.

As for that uppity slave, remind her that, even though her purchase price exceeded yours, she is still a slave.

05 TANCRED'S LANDING

HEAVY RAINS

by the editor

Heavy rains lashed the upper Vosk region district for the fifth consecutive day this hand hampering the civic life. Farmers were the worried lot as the standing crop in huge extent of farm fields was under water. Drains were overflowing and the traffic affected badly due to the incessant rains.

Virtually the entire region has been affected by the storms that began the first Hand of the eight month, dumping moisture from far Northern Forest south to the Vosk area. More than 12 inches of rain have fallen in parts of the Thentis Mountains in the south, and 13 feet of snow has accumulated in the Voltai region.

The rain was part of a system moving ahead of the remnants of a Tropical Storm, which dissipated over the Straits of Thassa on the last hand.

The weather is forecast to become brighter by the next hand, however the wind and blustery showers looks set to continue.

# NEW VOICE OF GOR EXCLUSIVE: HEAD MERCHANT OF WINDSONG RESIGNED AND LEFT

by the editor

Lady Hina Nani Barber [Hina Mhia], Head merchant of Windsong, resigned and left the city. She has been seen in Verr Fjord now.

The NEW VOICE OF GOR tried to find out what happened. Rumors say: The commander Darien (Darien Ghostaltar) wanted to be admin, but the head merchant thought he was incapable and proposed another candidate. The citizens of Windsong got tired of the intrigue and of the infighting of the two parties and forced both to leave.

10 SA VELLA

Hello dear Goreans,

we would like to establish contacts with BtB cities and villages in order to role play. We thought of trade, slave hunting, conspiracy plots or personal stories. We are an old tribe living in the northern forest. We do not attack cities and villages and we are not interested in becoming annoying. We would just provide some variety in role play. So if you are interested or at least willing to see what we can do please let us know.

11 A RIVER RUNS THROUGH IT

There was an earthquake in Primus opening up hidden entrances to an ancient underground river running under the fort of the Northern Lights Outlaws. The gang (always opportunistic) have built a dock for landing smugglers cargo. A wary guard watches over the river with a hawk's eye... except for when they are drunk or sleeping which is most of the time.

This MAGNA CHARTA will be re-written soon. The NEW VOICE OF GOR will keep you informed.

15 HOUSE OY YUROKI COMPANIES

# COIN BUSINESS

NEW COINS FOR RA-RIR

The council and the head merchant of Ra-Rir got new coins made by the House of Yuroki mint, they have been delivered some days ago. The House of Yuroki (HoY) bank branches of Tancred's Landing, Tharna and Tarnwald (temporarily closed) will accept and convert them 1:1.

# FACTS

The HoY Companies are currently located in Tarnwald (Voltai region), Tancred's landing (Vosk region) and in Tharna. The HoY Companies are a member of the true Southern Trade Alliance.

# REWARD - DEAD OR ALIVE

A messenger arrived at the HoY headquarters delivering this scroll, sealed and encrypted:

"On Monday night of this week a man with long dark hair, a small short beard around his jaw line and a patch of hair under his chin came to Olni and confronted, if that is a good word, the Ubar of Port Olni as he was leaving the small area after a spar match. The Ubar was talking to his Captain of the guards, Siri Emerald. We found out through his confession that he was from Port Salaria. He wants to kill Yuroki.

He confessed to using a lot of different weapons so I could not vouch for that..He is slender of body and dresses all in black...He usually has a Glaive on that looks like a Q-tip with spikes on the ends encrusting it. I have never seen this glaive and I watch weapons obsessively. It is quite unusual."

The House of Yuroki Companies will pay for this man DEAD OR ALIVE.

TWENTY GOLD TARN

His name is unknown but the description is very accurate: □

# SEEKING MERCENARIES, AGENTS AND MERCHANTS

RA-RIR

OASIS OF SAND SLEEN

Normal banking duties

Applications to Rarius Yuroki

16 CURRENCY EXCHANGE RATES HOY BANK

The base unit of exchange rates are the coins of the city of Tharna.

NEW The HoY bank accepts and converts coins from Ra-Rir. (1:1)

The gold tarn disk of Ar is considered to be the standard by which other cities, such as Ko-Ro-Ba and Port Kar. set the value of their own coinage. It is worth, generally, 10 silver tarsks, but standardization is slight due to the shaving or splitting of the coin as well as faulty scales that contribute to the debasing of the coinage. ## ## MISCELLANEOUS

17 POEM OF NEPHTIDES

*Neph nods to himself, then stretches his back, cracking a few joints, and stands, bids the poets a formal Tal and walks to the middle of the room*

*with low voice* My greetings into all directions of the winds, and to all who came to honour the artful word. I am Nephtides na Neidos

, master weaponsmith is my position within my caste, but I am the Winter Jarl on Arcadia, and miner there.

My poem for tonight is...

The pulse of Gor!

*makes a dramatic pause...falls quiet, lifting his hand to his ear, as if listening.. then asks with loud, carrying voice:*

Do you hear it beating, dark and strong under the land?

Do you hear it's wardrum beats that make sweet dancers sing?

Can You hear hear them sing of honour where the homestones stand?

Did You ever march to it to make a foe's shield ring? -

Some close it out with walls and doors, some with a lock of steel,

Some fence the garden of their self off high to dwell alone some wall their hearts off from its pounding, hoping not to feel

And even more hide under words than under wood and stone

We cannot walk but in its rhythm, clear and straight in pace

We cannot hear another sound that dominant and clean
We cannot dance but to its beat, or hunt or run or chase
Just listen, hear it in the wind, the blow of the baleen

The cries of Tarns, the roars of Larls, Tharlarions thunderstride the clash of spears, the calls of men, the songs of peace and war
Just let them ring inside Your heart, and make your heart go wide
Now You hear it beating, friend: You hear the pulse of Gor.

ROLEPLAY

19 ADVANCED PARAGRAPH ROLEPLAY

Paragraph role play (rp) is roleplay at its very best. You don't just "say" something. You "emote" it, describe yourself as you say it. I find that Gor's villains especially like to emote this way. And I find it much more satisfying. (A little bit difficult for people who are not native English speakers - I am not...)

For instance, let's say I want to tell someone the Ubar has been captured. Here are two versions of that.

Version One:

Fenix Artful runs up to the warrior. "They've taken him, they've taken the Ubar!"

Version Two, paragraph style:

Fenix Artful, her dress in disarray, smudges on her face that is wide-eyed with fear and anger, runs up to the warrior. She's out of breath, and stops, unable to speak at first, bending to put one hand on her knee and the other gripping her waist, as she tries to catch a breath. Her run from the forest edge has left her frustrated at being winded. She looks up through a matt of tangled red hair, and hoarsly spits out the words of what has happened to her FC, now far away no doubt, "They've taken him, they've taken the Ubar!"

Now version one is quick, and sometimes quick is preferred. Certainly if there a hope of this warrior saving the Ubar. But we're assuming its a done deal, he's off the sim. And she's just looking to tell the story. She does in version one, but it leaves all kinds of questions...is she hurt?, was she involved in the kidnapping or just telling him something someone told her? Is she upset about this? Glad? Which Ubar is it? Hers or someone else's? Where has she come from? And so on...

It takes a bit of getting used to, but anyone can do it. Just ask yourself, what do I look like? What is my attitude? You don't have to write War and Peace, but take some time to let others know you better through more descriptive rp.

Here is an example (Merchant's Point - Tavern of Bound Will)

(...) [16:18] Aesa [Silent Memo] moved with the urging of his hands, her body pressed and bent over the counter, feet shifting apart as his urgency made her breathless. She whimpered, as if the sound would encourage him to hurry, a low moan given at the initial delicious sensation of his filling her. There was no way she'd be fighting his movements and as soon as he started to drive...she pushed right back and met each relentless thrust with her own drop of hips, only able to pant right at the moment with that hand wrapped about her throat. She felt her feet shuffle slightly, trying to get better footing while her body heated and she rocked back to him eagerly, his cock now easily coated and slick as it repeatedly buried itself.

[16:21] Anarch of Tarnwald [Anarch Allegiere] didn't need long until he finally felt himself satisfied and discharge into the slave-girl. A few hard last thrusts were given as he exasperatedly breathed and pulled out. He had used her swiftly, urgently and hard and just as hard his hand soon slapped on the counter: "Come more paga, beast!" – The man seemed to have little quarrels with how hastily he just had taken the slave and to keep her treated as a slave. He had a slight grin across his lips though, a grin of satisfaction after the sex and even though she might've just felt him spill himself into her he was still staring at her with much hunger, as was evident by how he let the back of his fingers stroke over the girl's skin before she could turn to get his cup of paga: "Who rules this village?" – he then asked as he straightened his tunic.

[16:29] Aesa [Silent Memo] might have gritted her teeth as he came and she was just about ready to herself. As he pulled from her, she was left trembling, panting while her need surged rampantly through her. It was enough for her to lean into the touch of his fingers, his question left for the moment as she begged him "Master, please finish me..." her hands shook so badly that she wasn't sure if his paga would make it into the bowl if she even tried right now. IT was either that, or she was allowed time to struggle with her need and calm down, but her eyes pleaded with him, her body writhing against the counter as if there was an itch she just couldn't get scratched on her own.

[16:34] Anarch of Tarnwald [Anarch Allegiere] laughed loudly at the slave-girl's plead and honestly, he had traveled for a long time and had not felt flesh for a long time. The mere sight of seeing her beg and remain in position was enough to arouse him a second time, never before, that he could remember, he had so soon felt himself recovered only to mount a woman again. He stroked his hand over the thigh as he made her spread her legs a bit before he positioned himself behind her again and penetrated her a second time. He was somewhat surprised that he was hard and eager again so soon and only a moment later they were again in the same obscene pose as they were before. The large Warrior raping her relentlessly as he made her plump breasts drag over the counter, rocking her back and forth. He knew that this time though, he would not be satisfied as swiftly as the first time. Sweat started to drop from his forehead as he used all the force he could muster to ram this slut hard from behind, the wood of the counter was probably about to leave some bruises on the front of her thighs in the brutal manner which he fucked her. But it was obvious he was tired, he nearly laid on top of her from behind, but he was fond of such closeness and the warmth of female bodies. His mouth soon kissing the edge of her lips again as he kept riding her and pulling her back over his hard cock. (...)

20 UNEXPLORED GOR

Newest: I added the rowboats Dimya & I made. There will be three of them, one to each ship, 6 seats per boat. Steering is the person seated on the aft seat.

All three ships have a ladder for access from the waterline. The water is scripted with primswim, get the Swimmer 2.04 to have full realism, from marketplace. wearing it, you can virtually fall into the water and swim to any of the ships and directly sit on the ladder to climb up.

We will start play on saturday/sunday, this weekend. At 12:30 pm SLT every day, we start the scene. The whole rp stretches over a full gorean year, meaning 3 months RL timespan. Note that it's not expected to come every day, and the story will be designed so all get their parts.. but we do expect you get involved, read the news we send out, and bring your character in as often as possible. ALL roles will be needed that we have.

The setup: Chapter One is the sail from Arcadia to the Scimitar Archipelago. The at-sea-scenery is set up already.

## KNOWLEDGE

22 THE SALT OF GOR; THEIR VALUES; COLORS AND LOCATIONS (Version 2.0)

The red salt of Kasra, so called from its port of embarkation, was famed on Gor.
Tribesmen of Gor Book 10 Page 20

Most salt at Klima is white, but certain of the mines deliver red salt, red from ferrous oxide in its composition, which is called the Red Salt of Kasra.
Tribesmen of Gor - Page 238

Salt, incidentally, is obtained by the men of Torvaldsland, most commonly, from seawater or the burning of seaweed. It is also, however, a trade commodity, and is sometimes taken in raids. The red and yellow salts of the south, some of which I saw on the tables, are not domestic to Torvaldsland.

Marauders of Gor, pp 186-187

Gor has three colors of Salt. They are Red, Yellow, and White.

How many colors of Salt do we have "on Earth"? There are three colors of salt, Red, Yellow, and White. The fourth is a mix of pumice & white salt (black salt).

Red Salt, or Kala Namak, is won from salt mines located in the Himalayan Mountains, but also from salt mines in the United States. Kala Namak is commonly used in Asian countries and is necessary for much of Indian and Pakistani cuisine.

Yellow Salt is more common. However, its main source is also in the Himalayan Mountains. It is normally called Himalayan salt.

Both Red & Yellow salts are natural rock salts. The red & yellow color does come from minute amounts of Iron in the salt. They are natural volcanic halite. However, ferrous oxide would not turn salt red nor yellow, but rather black. Red salt (sodium sulfate) has traces of iron sulfide, and hydrogen sulfide. While yellow salt has no hydrogen sulfide, and lesser amounts of iron sulfide.

White salt is simply pure sodium sulfate, and can be purified from rock salt, or won from seawater. White salt is the most common salt around, and can be found anywhere there is or was a salt sea.

Yellow salt has no, or little, advantage over white salt. Its value is the same as white salt. However, red salt, Kala Namak, is different, and has both medical & cuisine values above that of regular salt. (Red salt is actually a purple/black color in rock form, and once ground has a pink color. Yellow salt when ground has a dull white color.)

There is also a fourth type of salt, which is actually only white salt contaminated. This is medical salt. (Think Dead Sea salt.) Such salts are usually low on sodium chloride (salt) while having higher values in Chloride, Bromide, Magnesium, Calcium, Potassium, Silicon dioxide, Calcium oxide, Aluminium oxide, Magnesium oxide, Sodium oxide, Sulfur trioxide, and Phosphorus pentoxide. While Sea Salt is usually 85% pure sodium chloride, such salt can have a low 2.4% actual sodium chloride content.

It would be ill-advised to use such a salt for consumption. They should be used for medical purposes only, and that usually externally in the form of bath salts, and in creams, or soaps.

Medical salt can be effective in balneotherapy of rheumatoid arthritis, psoriatic arthritis, and osteoarthritis. The minerals are absorbed while soaking, stimulating blood circulation. They can also be used in the treatment of Psoriasis, skin aging, and can relieve allergic reactions by cleansing and detoxifying.

Where on Gor do these salts come from?

- White salt can be found anywhere there is seawater & one can make a salt-pond to evaporate the water. In some sedimentary rock can be found salt-licks. Seldom are these salt-licks large enough to harvest any greater amount of salt from. A single person, village, or family might be lucky enough to distill their salt needs from such though...
- Red & Yellow salt comes from the Tahari. Like Blackwine only coming from Thentis, silver from Tharna, Red & Yellow Salt can only come from the mines of eastern Tahari.
- Medical salt needs an environment similar to the Dead Sea in Israel. (The natural salt deposits of the Salt lake area in Utah do not contain sufficient contaminants.) That exists only in the Tahari. Thus the export of such salt is a Tahari only domain.

Beware of what you buy:

Any salt can be colored to almost any color by adding in food coloring to the salt. There are quite a few quotes in the novels to this being done. Turian feasts usually had multiple colorings of salt. Each color used for a certain dish.

Proofing such salt can be done by dropping some in a glass of water. Colored salt will change the color of the water. Red salt will not.

Kala Namak's Advantages:

Culinary Use

There are a number of kala namak uses and therefore it is one of the main ingredients of Indian cooking. Here are some of them:

- Adds tanginess – One of the kala namak uses is that this mineral salt helps in imparting a tangy flavor to the dishes and thus, makes them more delectable. Kala namak is often used for making chats, chutney and raitas.
- Lends egg like flavor – The salt when added to vegan dishes lends egg like flavor and thus is used by many chefs for making vegan dishes.
- Salad dressing – Kala namak, along with cilantro and lemon, makes delicious dressing for fruit and vegetable salads.
- Common ingredient – Kala namak is commonly used as an ingredient for mango smoothies and buttermilk recipes.
- Grilling and seasoning – The salt is also used for grilling and seasoning purposes.
- Rimming cocktail glasses – Fine black salt is often used for rimming the cocktail glasses.

Health Benefits

Besides being used for cooking, the salt is also popular due to its numerous health benefits. Here are some of them:

- Aids in digestion – In Ayurvedic medicine, kala namak is often recommended to people suffering from digestion problems. The salt is considered beneficial in reducing bloating and flatulence.
- Low sodium content – The low sodium content of kala namak makes it useful for the people who follow low-salt diet or are suffering from high blood pressure.
- Gives relief from heartburn – Kala namak is considered to be effective in reducing heartburns. It works as a cooling spice and works well with yogurt.

- Anti microbial – Kala namak is anti-microbial and is also used for bathing products.
- Relief in gastric problems – Kala namak provides relief from constipation and other gastric troubles.
- Helps in eradicating toxins - If consumed regularly, the salt is beneficial in getting rid of toxins from the body.
- Works on tumors – Recent studies have shown that the salt is also effective in treatment of tumors.

Modern Values of Salts:

Salt is sold in bulk in various grades.

- Mill Salt from Mines: (Includes yellow & white) $0.78 per lb.
- Sea Salt: $0.78 per lb.
- Kala Namak: $2.75 per lb.

However, the price of salt through the ages has differed greatly from our modern day pricing. At times, salt was a greater cause of wars than religion. Depending on the location & time, salt's price could be anything from worth its weight in gold to, "glad to get rid of it."

In Roman times (301 AD), a common laborer earned 7,625 Denarii communes (copper coins) per year, or 25 per day. Salt cost was 100 Denarii communes for one modius bag of salt. So, in other words, a 4lb sack of salt was priced at $22.89.

In the Dark Ages, salt prices went up 14 times higher than it was during Roman times. A 4lb sack of salt in England of 800AD would cost then $320.46. In comparison, 4lbs of gold would equal $101,978.56. Still, salt, any salt, was so costly, that later, it was stored in the Tower of London. (Medieval salt came mainly from Poland. In the Middle Ages, people thought sea salt was not healthy, but only mined salt was eatable.)

I personally, would suggest using the 800AD pricing for Gor, unless someone finds quotes otherwise. That would therefore mean retail prices of: (All Gorean coins in the Tharna system.)

Quarter-Stone Fine-Ground and/or Rock Salt: (1 lb.)

- White & Yellow Salt: ($80.12 per lb.) Two Silver Tarns, 1 Silver Half-piece, 1 Silver Eight-piece, 3 Copper Tarns, 1 Copper Half-piece, 1 Copper Eight-piece per Gorean Quarter-stone.
- Kala Namak - Red Salt: ($282.47 per lb.) Eight Silver Tarns, 1 Silver Half-piece, 2 Copper Tarns per Gorean Quarter-stone. (Roughly 3.5 times the value of white & yellow salt.)

Two-Stone Fine-Ground and/or Rock Salt: (8 lbs.)

- White & Yellow Salt: ( $640.96) 18 Silver Tarns, 1 Silver Tarsk, 26 Copper Tarns, 1 Copper Tarsk.
- Kala Namak - Red Salt: ($2,259.76) 1 Gold, 14 Silver Tarns, 1 Silver Tarsk, 1 Silver Half-piece, 1 Silver Quarter-piece, 1 Silver Eight-piece, 2 Copper Tarns, 1 Copper Tarsk, 1 Copper Half-piece.

One-Weight Fine-Ground and/or Rock Salt: (40 lbs.)

- White & Yellow Salt: ($3,204.80) 1 Gold, 42 Silver Tarns, 1 Silver Tarsk, 1 Silver Quarter-piece, 1 Copper Tarsk.
- Kala Namak - Red Salt: ($11,298.80) 6 Gold, 23 Silver Tarns, 1 Silver Tarks, 1 Silver Quarter-piece, 1 Copper Tarsk, 1 Copper Half-piece.

These would be of course Retail prices for the larger Vosk River region, and not wholesale, nor prices for Torvaldsland. In Torvaldsland, white salt from local sources could even be cheaper, however Kala Namak would be around twice to three times as high. In the Tahari, Kala Namak (red salt) could be just 1.5 times the value of White & Yellow. While white or yellow could be worth only half its Vosk value. Depending on distance to source, and state of raw salt (block or refined) wholesale price could be as low as one-quarter of the retail price.

## ABOUT THE NEW VOICE OF GOR

# (OOC) FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION

Is the NEW VOICE OF GOR OOC or IC?

This newspaper is available IN CHARACTER at message boards in several cities. But it has OOC parts and IC parts which can be identified although many people mix both. We try to keep the two separate. But if you start a storyline based on an IC article of the NEW VOICE OF GOR it would be useful for a moderator to have a log where you have read the message ICly.

The NEW VOICE OF GOR can be true or false, propoganda or journalism like on earth. There is no freedom of the press on Gor. Why let the truth get in the way of a good story?!

"Goreans were not always fooled by posts on boards.
Those who control the public boards, it is said, control the city.
But I was not sure of this.
Goreans are not stupid.
It is difficult to fool them more than once. They tend to remember."
(Magicians of Gor)

Why is "publicare et propagare" the motto of the NEW VOICE OF GOR?

You all know that Goreans use message boards to spread news, announcements and gossip. Such are found at various points in Ar, such as the vicinity of squares and plazas, near markets, and on major streets and avenues.

Books are rare on Gor and expensive. Paper is the essential trade good of the Rencers and they sell their wares on both the eastern and western edges of the Delta of the Vosk river. The NEW VOICE OF GOR is a collection of rence paper scrolls but the editor paid some message boards too to spread the newspaper. Gorean Public Boards sometimes made people angry. Those who control the public boards, it is said, control the city.

We took our motto from the Acta Diurna [latin: Daily Acts sometimes translated as Daily Public Records] on earth. The Acta Diurna were daily official notices in ancient Rome, a sort of daily gazette. They were carved on stone or metal and presented in message boards in public places like the Forum of Rome.

Acta Diurna introduced the expression "publicare et propagare", which means "make public and propagate". This expression was set in the end of the texts and proclaimed a release to both Roman citizens and non-citizens.
