EDITORIAL

“There is a crowd ahead,” I said, “at the public boards.”
“They seem angry,” he said.
(Magicians of Gor)

The latest cases I am working on deals with the issue of behavior of free women. There is a difference between the way a free woman is expected to act and the way a slave is expected to act. Free women are held in a higher regard by free men than a slave.

A slave is only property and has no rights or freedom. Free women have rights, the ability to own property and gather wealth. Free women can become the most cherish women of men, their Free Companion.

With these freedoms, that a free woman has, comes responsibility to act and behave in a certain matter. The free woman has the freedoms because men allow them to have them. They can lose these freedoms by not taking the responsibilities that come with them seriously.

I urge all free women to take the responsibility and freedom, given to them my men, serious and not let it me taken away.

Any news, articles, poems, gossip, schedules, paintings, jokes you have, please send them to the editor or co-editor. You are looking for a free companion, a slave, an assassin? Advertisements are very welcome.

KURRI PLOT REVEALED

Further to the report in last weeks VoG, the mystery plague affecting the capital of Tyros has been traced to a kurri poison. This seems to have been introduced into the city's drinking supply by a Kurri agent.

Our brilliant Physician here in Landa, explained the modus operandi and the identification process clearly and naturally. He also said scornfully that he couldn't be held accountable for people's untutored speculations as to the nature of the disease.

Some possibly over hasty reaction by certain authorities was, most probably, induced by the fear that it might have been an outbreak of Bazi plague. This is understandable in view of its deadly nature. We are lucky in Landa to have capable and judicious authorities who did not panic. Sensible precautionary measures were quickly put in place and all suspected carriers were cleared after exhaustive tests.

BLACKWINE BEANS MISSING

Asathor, the new tavern keeper of Landa, has been sent out to look for blackwine beans as Thentis is no more.

- ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE ADMIN

SWEARING THE OATH

It is hoped that a homestone swearing ceremony can be held:

- second day of the fifth hand of the Month of Camerius (Ar)
(1.00 pm PDT on Friday 10 June 11, with another at 6.00 pm the same day)

If anyone cannot make either of these times, or dates, alternative arrangements can be made.

Legal basis:

Caste laws and public laws of Landa:

2.1.1.2 Swearing the Oath.

Each applicant shall be presented by a sponsor who will already be a sworn citizen of the city. The Administrator shall lead the ceremony and retains the right to refuse citizenship to anyone he deems unsuitable. If allowed to proceed, each applicant will be offered bread, salt and fire by the Administrator. Each applicant then kisses the home stone and swears allegiance. The Administrator then proclaims them full citizens. In the event that the Administrator is unable to perform the ceremony himself he may appoint a representative to conduct the ceremony for him.

Allegiance to a homestone, not a physical structure, defines communities:

"The community of those who had been Waniyanpi, of course, was not identified with a particular area of land, and certainly not with a territory occupied under the conditions of a leased tenancy. It now, in the Gorean fashion, for the first time, tended to be identified with a Home Stone. The community could now, if it wished, the Home Stone moving, even migrate to new lands. In Gorean law allegiances to a Home Stone, and not physical structures and locations, tend to define communities."

(Blood Brothers of Gor)

MEETING AND ELECTION: HEAD OF THE MERCHANT CASTE

A meeting of the merchant caste will be:

4th day of the fifth hand of the Month of Camerius (Ar)

(Sunday (12 June 2011 2 pm PDT)

Topics: election of the head of the caste

Legal basis:

1.1 Landa Government

While the Merchant Caste does not hold a seat on the council it is not unusual for coin to purchase influence particularly in prosperous Gorean realms where trade plays a powerful role. To reenact that influence two High Caste votes will be cast at the direction of the Head of the Merchant Caste. Those influenced votes will rotate among the council members. To ensure the government never loses sight of the will of the citizens of Landa council members can be removed by a proper election of their caste.

4.1.1 Head of Caste

The Head of Caste shall be responsible for maintaining standards of the caste within the city. Head of Caste shall be appointed by their caste and serve at the discretion of the High Council. A Head of Caste shall serve for the term of year before which they may step down, be dismissed by a majority vote of the High Council or at the decree of the Administrator.

REPRESENTATIVE FOR THE LOWER CASTES IN THE COUNCIL OF LANDA

I appoint Blade (Snowdrop), master Assassin of Landa, as representative for the lower castes in the council of Landa.

Legal basis:

4.2. Lower Castes

Lower Castes shall be represented on the council by a single non-voting representative who shall be responsible for voicing the concerns and opinions of the lower castes of the city. Said representative shall be appointed by the Administrator and serves until they step down or are dismissed and replaced by another.

THE LANDA SOCIAL SCENE

ZAR

I put a zar board at the tent in Landa. Everybody can use it.

Zar: a board game of the Tahari. The board is marked in squares, but the pieces, 9 per player and called 'pebbles', are placed at the intersections of the lines. Movement is somewhat like that of checkers, but without capturing of pieces. The object of the game is to effect a complete exchange of the original placement of the pieces. (Tribesman of Gor, p.265)

The Master Taught His Girl the Ways of Gor

Earth girl kept I in tower as my own
Her tender treasure trove alone to bone
She needs to learn the ways of Gor I feel
And socialize with other girls so real
Instruct her in the basic ways must I
At least impart some things for her to try
"My dearest girl before the free you kneel"
She knew the "Nadu" buttocks kissing heel
The palms are up means that you're free for use
The knees are spread at angle so obtuse
To part your pussy lips for Master's look
I tell you this, it's written in the book
John Norma gives the basic posture true
A girl should practice posture through and through

Nadu for free men only pretty tart
Free Women want no nether lips to part
For them the "Tower" is a true must do
Hold knees together palms are downward too
This is the way the book says it must be
I think with bracelet posture to make three
Will do a girl in every circumstance
Of course there's more expression in a dance
But that's another lesson to be learned
Today into a girl's mind these be burned
For men and women free kneel in the way
I have instructed you, that is to say
For women Tower, men in Nadu kneel
They are the basic ones I strongly feel

A girl who's new to Gor needs only say
A few short phrases in her "salad day"
Lady is "Mistress," nothing more to add
Free man is "Master," be He prince or cad
"Yes Master" or "No Master" will suffice

Stare downwards girl, don't look him in his eyes
When greeting free it's "Greetings Master" first
Then "Greetings Mistress" and to slaves the worst
Speak not unless permission's given clear
Then in third person to the listening ear
And never, never call a Free by name
Such will disgrace a Master and bring shame
So there you have it girl some simple rules
Enough to start a girl with basic tools

THENTIS IS NO MORE

Runners coming to Nyuki, have urgently reported that the Priest Kings have unleashed the BLUE FLAME on Thentis.

The City of Thentis is no more.

Yes, the City of Thentis had wars and history with many cities of the STA. But, they were BTB and it now saddens even us, to know that another City falls into dust.

The homestone, however, is safe and secured from our investigations into the matter.

Maybe one day it will rise again.. but for now..... Ashes to Ashes, Dust to Dust.

PLAGUE STRIKES TYROS

An unidentified plague has struck the city of Tyros. The authorities have taken all precautionary measures, including closing the city. This has resulted in massive disruption of commerce and travel.

Your correspondent was one of the last to leave the stricken city before the gates were closed. One could hear the tumult from the dockside as numerous visitors, and, it must be said, citizens tried to escape.

When I returned to Landa I stayed outside the city and sent a message to the administration, informing them of the plague and that I might have contracted it. They sensibly quarantined me on an island with a boy who had come into contact with me. This was fortunate as he was able to look after all my needs.

After the prescribed period of quarantine I showed no ill effects, neither did the boy. We were thoroughly examined, and as there were no signs of plague we were able to resume our lives.

No reports have yet been received From Tyros. It is to be hoped that this plague is not serious, and that normal intercourse will soon be resumed.

BLUE CASTE

This week has been relatively quiet. The Scribe office seems to be in dire need of cleaning.

I would like to remind the Slave Owners that a physical exam is not a slave paper. If you don't want your ownership questions, please be sure to talk to me to get the papers in order. There is a fee, but it is negotiable.

MAGISTRATE

This was a busy week for the magistrate's office. We had an incident that still awaits his rule and I hope it will be a wise one.

The result will be announced in the next edition of this paper.

GREEN CASTE

From the Infirmary
Notice to all citizens.

For the general health and welfare of all free citizens of the the City of Landa, Port Shilo, and its surrounding areas, please be advised that all new slaves brought to the city, however obtained, must undergo a physical examination by an authorized member of the Green Caste, and if such is required, a pest decontamination. This should take place within 48 hours of their arrival.

Before such examination, please do not allow such newly acquired slave near a water supply, or to handle food, and it is suggested that intimate contact also be delayed.

A copy of all slave exams will be filed with the City Chief Scribe, and such are public records. Copies may be obtained for an appropriate fee to be determined by the Scribery .

The Infirmary Fee for a slave examination is two copper tarsks, which includes one sealed copy of the original report for the owner of the property.

Judygirl Beck
Head Physician

Tal Citizens.

I am writing this to inform you of a situation that has spiraled out of control. Lady Viki was quarantined on an island as a precaution to an apparent plague. After research and time, Lady Viki was found not to have anything wrong. She had not even been close to an infected person. The source of this outbreak is Kasra., And it is a poisoning of a water supply by the Kur.

I urge all citizens to contact a Full Physician of the city if they have any concerns. I understand people get panicky when they hear the word plague, But rest assured. No one is at risk of catching anything.

Warmest regards
Lucius Heartsdale.
Physician of Landa.

REMARK: Lucius left Landa for unknown reasons.

- SLAVE HOUSES

The HoY slave Levana Noel has been sold to Brandon and is called Aleah now.

- BANK OF LANDA

Most cities have a Street of Coins, an area where banking is done. "Sometimes, of course, certain areas specialize in, or are known for, given types of services or products. Each city usually has, for example, its "Street of Coins." On such a street, or in such an area, its banking will largely be done. Similarly most cities will have their "Street of Brands," on which street, or in which area, one would expect to find the houses of its slavers. (Fighting Slave of Gor)

Landa has its own bank and coins now. The bank is privately owned, but the company got a banking license from the city of Landa, the mint too.

1. GENERAL REMARKS

Welcome to Landa, a thriving and growing port town built on commerce and trade. In this pouch are some coins to start you off.

The Currency system put in place here in Landa is to further your role-playing experience by offering a value for the things you commonly use everyday. While we are aware there is far more to the currencies floating around in Gor, we have chosen to simplify things for all involved. It doesn't mean outside currency isn't any good here, by all means, it is welcomed as long as you can find someone willing to accept it. Landa uses nothing but Tarsks for its currency. Ask the bank for the actual currency exchange rates.

The city only pays City employees, not every Citizen. It is up to the merchants, builders, bakers, seamstresses, to RP to make their coin. Please remember this when You are Rping ... hoarding your coin and not using it as intended will just cause the economy to fail, so please visit merchants, buy candles for Your homes ... bath supplies ... new cloth for a shirt ... there is so much that can be rped to bring a really fun aspect and help the sim grow.

2. FAQ

Question: Will I need a different meter or a new hud?

Answer: Not at all. You will get the Landa coins; they are in your inventory, not copyable but transfer.

Question: How will I get coins?

Answer: All free citizen get a Landa Coin Wallet to be able to start (meet a banker to get 15 copper tarsks), Visitors can get a free wallet in front of the bank building (three copper tarsks).

8 landa copper tarsk bit coins

Advices:

- If you are a citizen of Landa: Visit the HoY bank of Landa - the owner is Rarius Yuroki (Yuroki Uriza). You will get the Landa Coin Wallet 3.0 (in your inventory) if you show your citizen application of Landa as a proof.

- Rezz the pouch/wallet and copy the content (coins) in your inventory. That's all. You can rezz the coins and roleplay and/or put it the inventory of other people.

- If you are a visitor: Do something useful in Landa. The citizens will pay you for that. For example: Offer protection for a Free Woman who needs to travel. Trade with one of the merchants. Write an article for the Landa Times and offer it to the Scribes. Sell a slave to one of the slaver houses.

Question: Can I change other currencies (i.e. Treve coins, Vonda coins, Tyros coins, coins of Klima, Port Kar coins) with the Landa coins?

Answer: Yes. Please note that the current values are set by the merchant caste of Landa. If you receive coins from other cities the bank will take them and exchange them for Landa Coins.

OOO ROLEPLAY EXAMPLES

- SLAVE CHORES

A Stolen Kiss

by Liliith, En Fora of House of Yuroki (HoY)

After she awoke this morning she hurried to get washed and dressed. She knew her first chore this day was to pick berries in the woods. As she stood in the yard waiting to be chained up to the other girls she heard someone called her name: "Liliith, get your ass here!" She put down the leather bucket, turned around and kneeled in front of the overseer.

"Mistress has called for you, go!" With a little song on her lips she walked down the corridor, happy she avoided this grueling chore in the woods. She arrived at Mistress' room and knocked at the door; but nobody answered. She knocked once more - nothing. Now she opened the door and tiptoed across the room to Mistress vanity. She watched herself in the mirror, sniffed at the scent bottles and powder doses. She seemed to be alone, no noise could be heard. She saw Mistress combs on the vanity. They were made of bosks horn in different lengths. She took one and saw it was dirty and one of Mistress' black hairs between the teeth. She decided to clean the combs before her Mistress comes back.

Wrapped in her silks she took the combs with her and walked back to the yard. She went to the well, took the water bucket and let it down into the well holding the bucket with a rope mounted at the handle. After she noticed there was enough water in the bucket she pulled it back and put it on the ground. She decanted some water in a metal dish and put some soap flakes in the water. She unwrapped the combs, threw them in the dish, took a brush and scrubbed the combs. After they were clean she swilled them down in the clear water in the bucket and placed them at a cloth on the edge of the well. Cleaned all combs she dried them with her silks and wrapped them again.

She turned around and stood in front of one of the guards. "What a good girl" he said and played with one of Mistress combs. She knew him. His name was Rask and he always stared at her wherever he saw her. She knelled in front of him and said: "Greetings Master. This one was cleaning her Mistress combs and it seems she lost one. May she beg you to give it back please?" "You are an unobservant slave", he said, "you earn punishment! Do you have any suggestion to put me in a good mood to avoid your punishment?" Even though her eyes were lowered, she felt his gaze on her and saw a little smile appearing on his face. "Yes Master", she answered. "Follow me" he commanded and went back to the corridor. She followed him in the house and knelled again. He grabbed her hair and pulled her on her feet. Yelling she tried to step back and all the combs dropped on the floor around her. He grabbed her wrists and bend her arms behind her back. She tried to free herself but he was strong and she gave up soon. "And now little clumsy slave you will pay your inadvertence with a kiss." He pulled her close and pressed his lips against hers. She parted her lips and their tongues met in a passionate kiss. He smiled and said: "A kiss like milk and honey girl." He threw the comb on the floor and returned to the yard. Collecting all the combs she knelled on the floor and saw a slave girl run along the corridor. The girl stopped at her side: "Lilith where have you been, Mistress wants you to dress her hair. She wrapped the combs in her silks again and returned to Mistress room as fast as possible.

Library Dust

by Helen, slave of House of Yuroki (HoY)

[2011-06-06 03:20:15] helen entered the large library, rep clothes in hand, all set to dust every scroll and clean every shelf. Helen stood in the middle of the room, and cast an eye about the shelves and shelves of scrolls. She didn't know where to start.

[2011-06-06 03:25:07] helen turned to her left and climbed the spiral staircase, taking care not to fall off. She decided to start at the top floor and work methodically along the shelves. By starting at the top any dust will fall down below, to be picked up later when she progressed downstairs.

[2011-06-06 03:28:30] helen cleaned off the Legal and Laws shelf, then saw the Luther Scrolls, and paused. She pulled out a scroll and had a quick look. These are famous and she wondered why some people liked them and others didn't. One day she will find out the reasoning of both sides of the debate, but that was not her concern today. She must clean, and she put he scroll back and carried on dusting with he rep cloth.

[2011-06-06 03:32:16] helen was satisfied that all was looking good upstairs, she went back down and felt overwhelmed momentarily at the sheer volume of scrolls. She started in the rounded corners, and dusted and wiped. Helen marvelled at the curved bookcases, the workmanship involved in making them bend to fit the walls was great indeed.

[2011-06-06 03:35:36] helen resisted the strong urge to read all the scrolls, she make quick work in the cleaning of the shelves and corners. She sneezed; the dust had irritated her nose. She sneezed again. Finally she finished that last corner. She stood back in the middle of the room, rep clothes still in hand, and admired her work.

ONLINISM OF THE WEEK

"Bring me paga, beast" I told her, and took in the curves of her body.
The blonde physician raised his hand and spoke at me. "Nay Good Sir," he exclaimed,
"thou shalt not call this poor simple wretch a beast!"

She crawled up on the table in front of him with the pitcher in her delicate hands. "Drink, Master?", she asked.

He sat silent a moment, and looked at her. "Slave," he said, "pleasure me in IM"

She shook her head.

"You," said he, "are no slave"

"The 600th aphorism of the codes from bettergorean.com allow me to wear black jeans," he began.

Suddenly the air turned an electric blue. I shielded my eyes, and opened them only a few minutes later.

I looked down. The man had been struck by the blue flame of the Priest Kings.
