02 EDITORIAL

A warm welcome to the pages of the 83rd volume of the NEW VOICE OF GOR !

Free women traveled to other cities of Gor by trade caravans and vessels. Very few ladies could afford personal guards, only the very rich were transported by tarn.

Merchants would give safe passage within their caravan or ship for a small fee Peasant. Free women traveled from their home to city markets with their goods without too much trouble.

By the way: the NEW VOICE OF GOR is still looking for correspondents from the Northern Forests!

(OOC) FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION

Is the NEW VOICE OF GOR OOC or IC?

This newspaper is available IN CHARACTER at message boards in several cities. But it has OOC parts and IC parts which can be identified although many people mix both. We try to keep the two separate. But if you start a storyline based on an IC article of the NEW VOICE OF GOR it would be useful for a moderator to have a log where you have read the message ICly.

The NEW VOICE OF GOR can be true or false, propaganda or journalism like on earth. There is no freedom of the press on Gor. Why let the truth get in the way of a good story?!

"Goreans were not always fooled by posts on boards.
Those who control the public boards, it is said, control the city.
But I was not sure of this.
Goreans are not stupid.
It is difficult to fool them more than once. They tend to remember."

Great Sardar Temple

Blessed Terek, High Initiate of the Great Sardar Temple reports:
Preparations for Se'Var are proceeding. The Sardar Valley of Klepios is deep in snow and the Passage is being kept open by Temple slaves.

All satellite temples are encouraged to send in reports of their progress.

Report from Kassau Temple
submitted by EleVenthe

It has been bitter cold here. As I write, the Temple is drafty and freezing inside. I have caulked the wooden logs as best I can and will requisition a seamstress or tailor to make a 'bolster' of stuffed cloth or leather, to lay along the bottom of the main door where most of the draft enters.

I still do not have a temple slave, but this is understandable, given the financial straits I am experiencing. I am making preparations to celebrate SeVar next month. Perhaps I will bow to the Northern traditions and place a decorated evergreen tree outside the temple. I plan on creating gifts to give to the townspeople. They may be as simple as a prayer string of beads or a pendant, but they will be given from my heart.

There have not been any raids or significant attacks from the Torvaldslanders. I am slowly gaining the trust and confidence of the people.

In service to the Priest-Kings

Report from Temple of Imperial Ar
Submitted by Doraeus Tulbinus

I have arrived and am staying at the Inn. Evidently the recent war has caused great damage to the beautiful Temple in the City. The new Temple is under construction and will be quite beautiful.

There will, of course, be a rededication and reconsecration of the grounds and building. That will be announced when it is scheduled. I have looked over the foundations set, and the blueprints, and approve greatly of the projected building. The Builders of Ar are a credit to this fair City.

I am planning daily services when the Temple is completed. The High Council of Initiates, once so powerful, were scattered by the conflicts and must be re-organized.

Respectfully Submitted

Temple of Arcadia
Submitted by Adilokos

There is little to report currently. This, in part is due to my absence and journey to the Sardar Temple recently. My health suffered a setback while there, and while recovery was reasonably swift, it has taken a toll on my stamina. The Great Sardar Temple has my report for the year and we have come out financially very well due to some very generous donations and bequests.

The Kurii are restive, but they do tend to become more active in the winter months. No attacks have occurred.

There are no reports from the Landa Temple, Tyros Temple, or others. Passages have become blocked by winter.

PENILE IMPLANTS FOR PORT OLNi STATUES

By Teal Razor ~ slave

Now I am always in favor of a good raid. The sight of large swarthy men infesting a city is enough to make a girl's heart go pitter patter or lub dub...whichever you prefer. Olni, very early in the morning of a day last week, was host to a raid of sorts. One of our citizens wrote an incident report and passed the scroll on to the Ubar and Ubara. In the report she described the aftermath of this intrusion. Her exact words were, "I came across the biggest cock I've ever seen." No, it was not one of the Olni warrior's relieving himself in public, but rather a prickasaurus giganticus attached to a statue in the in the commons. In fact all of the statues in Port Olni had acquired penile implants of the herculean kind. To be said Port Olni is in possession of only 4 works of public art. It seems that the art budget comes after more paga for the tavern.

Well, although there were no apparent eye witnesses, there were those who caught a "glimpse" of this male ballet troupe. I say male ballet troupe because the people that "glimpsed" these marauders said they were all in pink tights, tutus, and heavy beards. These sorry excuses, after they preformed the aforementioned penile constructions, vandalized the statues plinths with the slogan...TREVIAN MALES RULE. I hate to mention names.

Before leaving, the bearded and swarthy men danced an impromptu scene from Swan Lake. I was told from one of those who "glimpsed" the event, The Black Swan Pas de deux from the third scene was spectacular.

I was asked in the aftermath, "Did these no neck males from Treve use grapples to scale the walls of Port Olni." I said, "Of course not, scaling walls would have ripped the pink organza tutus to shreds."

GOREANS PORTAL RADIO ADVERTISES A FAKE

By Teal Razor ~ slave

I always ask people if they have any dirt to dish where ever I alight. Last week at another Goreans Public Radio dance I was informed, by the free companion of the dj, (dj is short for discographical jarl or disco jarl for short) that a kidnapping was going to take place. I was going to call the FBI, when I realized there were no phones and who was the FBI anyway. Old Earth memories die hard.

I was dubious about this skinny. I asked for names of all the parties, sent scrolls to the eventual perp that I was on to him and secured an interview with him, one Sheikh Anvar the Wise.

Now, I will admit to having a quick wit and an ability to charm with a modicum of intellectual skills, but I would never refer to myself as wise. My thoughts were, "This guy must have a pair of big ones to make such a proclamation."

I landed in Kalana Forest and was met by the Pasha himself...a handsome gentleman. In the interview I informed him of his fakery and was not amused. His quote is: "Slavers have a twisted sense of fun and frolicking." Since this whole non-story is now over....I want to say that Kalana Forest is a rapidly developing town and hopefully will not suffer from unplanned builds as some have. Oh, lastly, Mistress from GPR, the bedroom in which you were going to be imprisoned was gorgeous darling.

MY MASTER

by HoY slave Blanca

'blanca' rolls out the furs and jumps in.
She lies back and rests her weary head.
She closes her eyes and instead of sleep she see's the outline of her Master.
A strong handsome figure.
Her dreams bring him close to her.
She only needs to close her eyes.
Her love for him makes her body shiver with excitement.
His voice sometimes booms, sometimes quiet.
To hear the words 'mine' come from his lips.
Makes her heart skip a beat.
He is my Master, I am proud to be his.
To die for him would be my greatest honour.
My Master she is your property.
I am yours, she begs you.
Just to hear you say.

"Mine "

Caste of Bounty Creditors? (Quotes, OOC)

The fellow from Venna, clad in white and gold, was Philebus, a bounty creditor. He was known to the merchants of several cities. Such men buy bills at discount and then set themselves to collect, as they can, their face value. They are tenacious in their trade. Fighting Slave of Gor, pg. 277

She spun from him and, crying, danced before Philebus, bounty creditor of Venna. He grinned and lifted before her eyes the bank draft, drawn on the bank of Reginald in Vonda, certified, and signed by the Lady Florence, for one thousand, four hundred and twenty tarns of gold. His trip had been quite successful, and he had now, too, the pleasure of seeing she who had been the elusive debtor now dancing as a naked slave before him. Fighting Slave of Gor, pg. 290

"I, too, extend my thanks to you for our business, and for the supper and evening," said Philebus, bounty creditor of Venna. He looked down at the naked slave, on her hands and knees, the chain depending from her collar, trailing back between her legs. "I had not thought to collect so readily or in so full an amount my bills. Fighting Slave of Gor, pg. 299

UNKNOWN MERCS RAIDED LANDA

Unknown Mercs have raided Landa claiming to be hired by the Ubar of Sais, Bohica. They took a warrior and left a message according to which Sais demands a monthly tribute in gold from Landa. The Ubar of Landa utterly rejected these demands as ludicrous. The Master of Arms of Sais came to Landa afterwards with the captured Landa Captain and assured us that they did not hire these mercs. Landa will watch the development closely. There had been an earlier raid by known Scarlets of Sais who were allegedly looking for rence paper in Landa. A warrior and a slave had been taken which were traded afterwards. The Ubar of Landa stated that a suitable response would be given to this aggression.

08 THARNA

PARADISE FOUND

It took three days by caravan to make it to the City of Silver, Tharna or perhaps one should say New Tharna, but the trip was well worth it. Actually the caravan drops you off just outside the new market, welcoming sight ever there was one, unlike many markets one finds through out GOR, this one seems to be in harmony with nature. Large welcoming shade trees with leaves and floors of many colors welcome you, the shops themselves nestled in little pockets amongst the low mountains. The market place itself is broken up into several of the little valleys connected highly detailed bridges and stairs that when climbed makes one wonder if they are ascending into heaven. There is even one place, where those seeking a thrill can jump aboard a rope spanning one large gorge and slide quickly from one side to the other, but don't look down, and never let go for it looks as if you would fall forever.

When you arrive at the city gates, stop and look out into the woods that surround Tharna and you will know that the Priest Kings has truly blessed this place. But be warned the woods are as dangerous as they are beautiful, the reporter took a stroll ignoring the warnings and lost in it loveliness, only to become lost herself. If it had not been for her skill (she got lucky) as a navigator, and of her keen survivor instinct (she heard a noise and ran screaming like a child) she would still be out their living off the land (more like eaten by a sleen) and never heard from again (except for her remains). So take my advice (And at least three armed guards, a guide, a half dozen slaves, and a weeks worth of provisions) and insure that you are completely physically (a comfortable litter carried by the slaves) and mentally (there are no soft beds or clean places to sit in the woods) before you go.

The city of Tharna itself, is surrounded and protected by a high wall and constantly patrolled by the guards of the city, which is expected but surprisingly seem more then willing to welcome travelers, visitors and new citizens. I found it quite refreshing, to be greeted by citizens and slaves who all seemed very warm and welcoming and were more then happy to give me a guided tour of the city or to let me explore the city on my own. "The inn is that way, stated one of the citizens make sure you stop by there, and the Tatrix is in said to be in her court room if you would like to pay your respects.

I was surprised at the warm welcome, I received by the Tatrix when I arrived, I have met many heads of cities but rarely have I met one that seems as interested getting to now me and I was to get to know her and her new city. By Caste I am a Scribe have made good use of my skills traveling GOR as an entertainer collecting stories and histories form all parts of GOR and sharing that that in the for of story telling through out GOR. The Tatrix listened to what I had to say listening intently and came up with a suggestion as how I could best serve Tharna, understand that I only came to Tharna to see what the Priest Kings had done to and with this most unique of cities. Winter is coming and typically, I spend my winters in much warmer climates tot he south. In fact I have only spent one winter in the last twenty years in the north, that was in Torvosland, where an early winter storm tolled in freezing the rivers and stream prematurely and dumping nearly a foot of snow in a single day. I tell you this so that you understand why I have chosen to remain in in Tharna. The Tatrix in case you have not figured it, offered me the position as Editor of the "Tharna Scroll," the official scroll of Tharna, which I accepted.

After talking to the Tatrix and accepting the position, I headed out to find my new office, and to my surprise found a half dozen citizens and visitors talking in the courtyard outside of the castle. Guards, scribes, Warriors, and even a young farmer seeking refuge, after loosing her home and village. The welcoming citizens of Tharna gave her a place to stay and the next couple of days showed her where she might start a new farm in support and with support of Tharna.

You may look at what I have written as being biases and it certainly is, I do love Tharna I have since the first time I visited and I love what the Priest Kings have done to recreate her. Please come and see the New Tharna, but be warned you may not ever want to leave.

09 IMPERIAL AR

INITIATE HAS RETURNED TO IMPERIAL AR

Since last hand Doraeus Tulbinus, High Initiate from the GREAT TEMPLE of INITIATES in the SARDAR MOUNTAINS, has returned to his Home Stone, Imperial AR

After leaving his HS many years ago on his pilgrimage to the Sardars, his only wish to study and dedicate his life as a member of the White Caste, he returned after the Priest Kings got word Imperial AR had been rebuild.

The decision had fallen to support IMPERIAL AR after long times of intrigue and internal trouble, leading to the attempt to overrun AR's official rulers. Only a complete destruction of the buildings prevented further damage to the Glorious reputation of AR, and now all has been restored to its former glory, the Priest Kings have decided to send the HIGH Initiate to AR being a citizen of AR from birth.

Imperial AR hails the Priest Kings on their decision, and all of GOR will be invited on the BLESSING CEREMONY to be held in the near future.

Once more AR will be a centre point in the focus of the protection of the Priest Kings.

Pilgrimers towards the Sardar Mountains are once again welcome to rest and prepare for their final journey into adulthood.

All be welcome to IMPERIAL AR.

INTERVIEW WITH LADY KAIILA

Your roving reporter, Scarlet, met the High Physician and Elder of the Physicians Caste of Gor. Over a hot cup of tea we had a nice chat.

Lady Kaiila said she was born in Thentis to parents who were both Physicians and Missionaries who worked in many strange lands . While still young, Ar attacked Thentis, her parents were killed and in the dark of night she was whisked off by a strange beast! She was then raised deep in the forest where she learned the ways of the lands, caring for animals and listening to the great philosophies of the peaceful spider peoples.

When she became of age, Kaiila was taken back to Thentis by her mentor who decided she needed to be among her own kind and was accepted into the green Caste.

She said to me "I had my bracelets put on and i was soon learning. In those days, there were few good physicians so I rose quickly in the caste. My training healing animals and learning what nature has to offer helped. Soon I was companioned and within the first seven years gave birth to seven sons."

I asked where else she lived on Gor besides Thentis. Her response was, "Thentis has had its ups and downs in leadership, I always tend to head back there. But, I was Ubara at Rarrir. I have helped build the city of Torcidino with a long deceased brother. Many years I was in the great Port Kar. I have built Ar, I do not know how many times!"

When asked about the rules and codes of the PCOG, Lady Kaiila seemed hesitant to allow me this information but gave me the following: "Let me explain something ..there is but to each it is different, as each City is different, each Culture is. What I teach is how one must use their mind and heart to decide these things! I teach what is proper, but I cannot tell people what to believe. I have to inspire them!"

She went on to say "The sovereignty of the cities is what determines caste and lies within all cities. For example, I would never walk into a city and tell the Physicians how to run their city. My power comes from the Collaboration and sharing of Knowledge to help them determine their destiny and their codes."

This reporter was thrilled at the responses and pressed Lady Kaiila further by asking "You've attained the highest Title 'the Elder'. All Physicians look to you for advise and guidance, it must be a great feeling to be regarded with such reverence in all Gor."

Lady Kaiila answered: "Let me tell you a funny thing about the word 'elder', I purposely selected it and only because I did not see myself as leader or high Physician which is what it is called in the 'books' . I picked elder because it was the least authoritative. I see my role as elder, as a guide almost. The Elder is someone in my humble opinion that started a group. There are many groups out there on Gor and each has Elders."

I pushed her by saying "Whether you like it or not you are regarded as the Leader and High Physician of all Physicians of Gor and they look to you for advise and guidance, would you like to say some thing to them as this is my last question to you this day."

She answered; "Yes, remember we are the story tellers of Gor in essence It is up to us to enhance, develop, and paint a picture of the wonderful world we live in Free of aging, disease, and sickness. We live in a Utopia of beautiful people all fighting and working to make our world be it by the books or a little enhanced. Enjoy what you do and with who you do it. Look at the good and ignore the bad. Concentrate on doing one positive thing to help bring us to a better experience."

I thanked the gracious Lady Kaiila and enjoyed the experience of been in the presence of a such a wonderful person who must be regarded as one of our finest Goreans.

GAMES

KAISSA

It was extremely quiet in the Ko-Ro-Ba Kaissa Tournament. Only 3 games played this week.

Jarl Ravenheart and Master Fistar played a strong and careful game where only an error would swing it in favour of the other. In this game an error by Master Fistar almost lost him the game until Jarl's mishap swung it back. Congratulations Master and very well played Jarl, an exhilarating game down to the last move.

Master Dan played Mistress Kiara, who not her usual self made a mistake early on, giving Jarl the game on move 13. Congratulations to Jarl Dan on making the next stage.

The last game saw a Jarl and Mistress pairing that was sure to bring a lively game. Jarl Maybon and his FC Mistress Firefly were next to see who could knock the other out of the tournament.

It was a fast game, Mistress giving Jarl an opening that saw her home stone taken by his scribe on Move 11. A good game, Congratulations Jarl.

TRADING IN KASRA

by Moon, HoY scribe slave

The Phaedra pulled into the port at Kadra. It was a beautiful day, and people were busy watching the activity on the ship. The goods were set up on the ship, and the soup canteen was set below. The activity was good, and we decided to stay another day. The street were narrow, and the Tharlarion was having a hard time getting through them, he did take out a few cloths line, but we returned the cloths to the correct people, and offered them some homemade soup, and fresh bread. A wonderful time was had by the people who came and saw all the goods, from the exotic birds to the soft silk, the fish market to the purfume bottles. We managed to get our fat tharlarion from the city, with no cloths this time, and waved good buy to the people of Kadra.

[Quotes]

Whereas members of the caste of slavers are slavers, not all slavers are members of the caste of slavers. For example, I am not of the slavers, but in Port Kar I am known as Bosk, and he known as many things, among them pirate and slaver. Too, both Marcus and myself were of the warriors, the scarlet caste, and as such were not above taking slaves. Such is not only permitted in the codes, but encouraged by them. "The slave is a joy and a convenience to the warrior."

(Magicians of Gor pg, 315)

CURRENCY EXCHANGE RATES HOY BANK

The base unit of exchange rates are the coins of the city of Ar.

The gold tarn disk of Ar is considered to be the standard by which other cities, such as Ko-Ro-Ba and Port Kar. set the value of their own coinage. It is worth, generally, 10 silver tarsks, but standardization is slight due to the shaving or splitting of the coin as well as faulty scales that contribute to the debasing of the coinage. HOY BANK

The House of Yuroki Bank is a privately owned company, licensed by several cities. It employs its own bankers, merchants and guards, all of the highest quality.

Specialising in coin production, it is pleased to offer this service to any cities wishing to issue their own coinage. For this it could mint their coins.

It is also interested in opening branches in other cities, working under license from them. It would wish to acquire premises in them to operate from, and would prefer to employ native citizens in the first instance as their staff

Any bank would be able to issue all citizens a starting wallet of coins.

The bank makes records of all transactions, the head merchant and the magistrate would get a copy each and every month.

If the city wished to pay citizens a wage or claim taxes it would not be the decision of the bank, but the bank would cooperate.

The blue caste, the green caste and the metal workers would need make a price list for their services

TRANSFORMATION

Adilokos gazes at his image in the mirror "This... is permanent?" he touched his face. The skin was darker, eyebrows thicker and his eyes, the faded green familiar gaze had deepened to midnight blue. He was much taller and heavier than before as well.

"Yes. Veeh answered, his translated voice metallic and even. "It was necessary."

"I understand," The Initiate said "It's just... with his memories... and now.. his face and form... I am no longer... me." He looked up at the Priest-King "Where is Adilokos?"

The golden being inclined his body, his feathery antennae gently touching the Initiate "You are in the Nest. You are..."

"No, I meant where is my identity? Am I Adilokos, or am I Karaden, with Adilokos' memories?"

"You are in the Nest," Veeh patiently repeated, not grasping the subtleties of the question. "And you possess both memories completely."

"Do you not see the change?" Adilokos asked. "Do I seem different? Altered?" □

"No," admitted Veeh, "But you humans all look identical to me. "You smell different."

"Thank you... I think." muttered the Initiate "May I return home?"

"Yes." replied the Priest-King.

Adilokos went to his cubicle to gather his cloak and few items. The trip back to Arcadia would be long, but he wanted very badly to return to his duties.

KNOWLEDGE

COLORS

The colors of the merchant caste itself are white and yellow, or white and gold. Needless to say, caste members do not always wear the caste colors. For example, a scribe would normally wear his blue when working but not always when at leisure. Goreans are fond of color and style in their raiment. They tend to be careful of their appearance and often delight in looking well.

(Witness of Gor, Pg 804)

In this chair, in graceful lassitude, weary, sat another girl, though one whose features, as she wore sheaths of pinned veils, I could not well remark. I was startled, discerning the volume and splendor of her robes; they were multicolored and brilliant in their sheens and chromatic textures, and so draped and worn that, particularly at the hem, the diverse borders of these various garments seemed to compete with one another to win the observer's accolade as the finest, the most resplendent, of all. About the robes and over the hood and veils of the garmenting were slung medallions and necklaces of wrought gold, pendant with gems. On her hands were white gloves, fastened with hooks of gold. Beneath the final hem of the innermost robe I saw the toes of golden slippers, jeweled, and scarlet-threaded, sparkling in the torchlight.

ON PRIEST KINGS

From the Nest Mother (vixyn.felisimo)

This is OOC information, however it might help in understanding the Nest

First, all knowledge of Priest-Kings true nature is to be considered Third Knowledge and is pertinent ONLY to the Priest-Kings and certain VERY carefully selected Initiates.

There are several different types or "sub-species" of Priest-Kings. All have the same basic characteristics.

1. Six legs, four are used for walking and climbing, and two are used for grasping and handling. In some these are also used for fighting ir defense.
2. Compound eyes situated to the sides of the head.
3. Non-flighted and wingless (with two exceptions. Queen and drone)

All Priest-Kings possess eight brains, linked together neurally.

All are sexless (with two exceptions, Queen and drone)

Queen or "Mother"

The Queen is smallest, in size but with the capacity to produce many eggs at a time. The Queen is the only female in the Nest and is fertile throughout her life. Once fertilized, she is not equipped to fight or fly and is protected by Soldiers. Before the Nuptial Flight, her body is smaller and her wings are the largest and strongest of the species, enabling her to fly slightly faster than the drones who must catch her to fertilize her. She mates once in her life and her lifespan, millions of hours, is measured by the number of eggs she lays. When the number of eggs produced dwindles, she ages and lays several Queen eggs.

When hatched, the Queens fight to the death with the strongest survivor killing her rivals. Usually the first hatched is the murderer of her sisters still in the brood cells.

Worker

Slightly larger than the Mother, the Worker is strong but more slender.

Workers are the most common of the Priest-Kings and are sexless (although the body type is female, genitalia are lacking completely) and non-flighted.

If they do possess wings the wings are purely vestigial and are generally nipped off or removed early. When young, workers are quite small and assist in cleaning the brood cells.

Attendant

Seen in the centre of the photograph, the Attendant looks a great deal like the Worker but is quite glossy and shiny in appearance. The Attendant has larger grooming hooks and is tasked with cleaning and grooming, feeding and caring for the young and for the Queen.

Soldier

Nearly twice the size of the Queen, the Soldier is the strongest and heaviest. Armed with sharp blades on its forelegs, the soldier is the defender of the Nest.

Drones are males, born when the need for a new Queen arises. Generally when drones are created, they are laid in batches of twenty or so. They are flighted and have strong wings and slender bodies. Once the Queen is mated, the drone which caught her in the Nuptial Flight dies and falls to the ground. The surviving drones are ejected from the Nest and perish in the sunlight. No drones are currently living.

Currently there are fewer than 6,000 Priest-Kings living in the Nest. They are the new generation, sprung from the new Nest Mother. Some few of the previous generation, such as Misk, remain alive and are treated as elder advisors and are much respected.

There are six Priest-Kings who are known as the Six Highest. These are the first six eggs laid by the new Mother and are in order

1. Vliss The Firstborn. A Soldier and protector.
2. Kvass The Secondborn. A Worker
3. Kress The Thirdborn. A Worker
4. Koss The Fourthborn. A Worker
5. Ulriss The Fifthborn. An attendant
6. Umyss The Sixthborn. An Attendant

These are the High Council of the Nest. The first letter of a name generally denotes the Caste. The ending of the name indicates rank. The 'ss' sound is reserved to the first Six, just as the 'sk ending (Misk, Kusk) denoted the rank of the first Five of the previous generation.

ONLINISM OF THE WEEK

OOO quote of the day from the STA group chat:

[2012/11/30 11:54] Darius Vayandar: I know yuroki has no spies in the sta group

ABOUT THE NEW VOICE OF GOR

The Landa Times is to become the NEW VOICE OF GOR.

The reasons for this are the former VOICE OF GOR is one of the oldest publications of second life Gor. Many Goreans have come to know it and its editor Verona Lorgsval.

Verona does not longer publish the Voice of Gor which was based in the city of Olni. Her mission statement for the paper was:

"The Voice of Gor is a cross sim Gorean wide newspaper. It is designed to promote and increase Cross Sim Roleplay and communication. The Voice of Gor strives to ensure that all parties are contacted ahead of time; however, occasionally a city will object to what was written. Any city is free to write a rebuttal or send in their own news."

That same note will be used and the same conditions apply. This is especially important at the present time. By the book sims are closing and opening every day the voice of Gor will be just that a voice where people can contribute articles, and ideas how Gor can be improved for the people who play a role within the cities.

THE NEW VOICE OF GOR is available:

for members of the group Cartographers and Explorers of Gor (about 1630 members) for members of the group BTB Goreans (about 600 members) for members of the group Alliance of Valkyrie Panthers (about 1100 members) for members of the group Gorean Information and Notices (about 115 members) in the Gor Hub (near the map there) in the Imperial City of Ar

in the City Port of Olni (gate house)
In Forest Port (docks)
in Port of Victoria on Vosk (docks, currently under construction) in the City of Kassau (skybox) in Tharna (skybox)
in Port Kalana (skybox)
in Teveh (coming soon, under construction) in Tarnwald (docks, sim under construction) in Tharnock (coming soon, under construction) in the City of Ar (currently under construction)
