02 EDITORIAL

A warm welcome to the pages of the 89th volume of the NEW VOICE OF GOR !

A lot of gorean cities suffer from a lack of citizens - others are overcrowded. These ups and downs are normal. Please keep in your mind that Goreans did not "wander" around without a reason like "tourists" but were proud of their city and homestone and were loyal and faithful. Goreans are also suspicious of strangers.

"Pikes on the walls of Gorean cities are often surmounted with the remains of unwelcome guests. The Gorean is suspicious of the stranger, particularly in the vicinity of his native walls. Indeed, in Gorean the same word is used for both stranger and enemy."
(Outlaw of Gor)

(OOO) FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION

Is the NEW VOICE OF GOR OOC or IC?

This newspaper is available IN CHARACTER at message boards in several cities. But it has OOC parts and IC parts which can be identified although many people mix both. We try to keep the two separate. But if you start a storyline based on an IC article of the NEW VOICE OF GOR it would be useful for a moderator to have a log where you have read the message ICly.

The NEW VOICE OF GOR can be true or false, propaganda or journalism like on earth. There is no freedom of the press on Gor. Why let the truth get in the way of a good story?!

"Goreans were not always fooled by posts on boards.
Those who control the public boards, it is said, control the city.

But I was not sure of this.
Goreans are not stupid.
It is difficult to fool them more than once. They tend to remember."

GREAT SARDAR TEMPLE IN KLEPIOS VALLEY

Few visitors during the dark of the year. We take this time to perfect our meditations and prayers, write and study. We have a trade agreement with House Rogerian, The Merchant, Joshao, to provide him with more of the beautiful handmade wooden home altars.

Our scribes are hard at work preparing the books which will be needed soon for the Initiates' Class upcoming on the 29th of this month. It will be announced.

04 NEW PRODUCTS OF THE TRUE SOUTHERN TRADE ALLIANCE

The true SOUTHERN TRADE ALLIANCE (STA9 (has nothing to do with the so called STA of Turia) will carry Kanda as there new product and looks forward to carrying it for there customers.

"The roots of the kanda plant, which grows largely in desert regions on Gor, are extremely toxic, but, surprisingly, the rolled leaves of this plant, which are relatively innocuous, are formed into strings and, chewed or sucked, are much favored by many Goreans, particularly in the southern hemisphere, where the leaf is more abundant."

(Nomads of Gor, pg. 43)

05 [OOO] GM RLV Warning - Avoid using this meter in direct only sims

Having just tested this we have found that the RLV version of the GM meter still takes splash damage even when the meter settings are set to Direct Hits only.

I have reported this to Jara, who i hope will pass it on to Alike.

Thanks all
Mani.

THE SLAVE'S CORNER
By Teal Razor ~ Slave to Siri Emerald Jr. Captain Port Olni Scarlet's

PORT OLNİ SLAVES AND FREEWOMEN NOW HAVE A NEW PLACE TO HANG

I am privy to the most well kept secret in Port Olni. This week I was privileged to witness a raid in our fair metropolis. It was pretty forgettable as raids go. We heard the inevitable great bell pealing out giving us warning that trouble was afoot. At that same moment I was in the tavern practicing my dance moves; although the dance pit is small, it is the only dance pit that is in a public venue. So I am practicing, and I look out at warriors who are running hither and yon over the landscape that I could see from out the front door...I keep dancing. The musicians were in good moods from the paga bowls I had placed earlier in front of them. I must have been dancing for at least a half an ahn when I decided to go to the door of the tavern and wave some of the raiders on in. I got a lot of smiles and return waves and it was in that moment I was granted an epiphany....the tavern was the safest place in the city! No one went in there. Any one seeking shelter would have no fear from anyone simply because no one would ever go into the tavern.

To this effect, I have loosely organized a troop of survivors, namely those who must hide during raids, the freewomen and the slaves. The next raid will see us assembled in the tavern, each with her weapon of choice, be it rocks, frying pans, whips, wooden spoons (although I am told that bamboo spoons are stronger), broomsticks, corn cobs, hair pins, ready to kill any raider who may venture into it. You may even see me, standing out front, buck naked, with a couple of my bond sisters trying to lure them into the mouth of hell..... Hope to see ya soon.

ZAR ANYONE?

This week past I discovered a game of infuriating tedium. The tedium was so intense as to be maddeningly pleasurable. The game of Zar is not for people with ADD (Anxious Dread of Death Syndrome) ...I say that in the most politically correct sense.

Now, I will preface all this by saying the only rules to any game I have been taught are the rules to 52-Pickup. Goreans mostly know this game as Pick up the Tarn Droppings. One player sadistically drops the whole deck of cards on the floor to induce the other person to bend over and pick them up....thereby rendering the "pickee" in a vulnerable position. There are other rules to this game once engagement takes place.....

Well... back to ZAR. If you have any inkling that you may be slated for death, be it an aberration or signed warrant, do not play ZAR. This was a comparison relayed to me by the Ubara's slave, that ZAR is like the earth game Chinese Checkers. This comparison elicited vague afternoons of the past where I stared into a board riddled with what looked like bullet holes filled with marbles and I found myself wondering if I had lost mine.

In ZAR you can choose the style of your ZAR pieces by finding something in the wild namely dung or pebbles and sticks. Since the dung was just that, I waved it off and chose the sticks which looked oddly like fecal matter anyway. My Master and I sat and played it for the first time. The blind leading the blind and for some reason I was the one falling in the ditch. I don't think HE was blind in the first place...son of a....

We were observed by Lady Ingrid who is the Port Olni city champion ZAR player. I think after watching us for a while, she probably wanted to stab her own eyes out rendering her also, incapable of sight. He beat me twice...well that was after the game, but he did win twice... I recommend this game as a tactics board to demonstrate how a proper raid should go. I found the grids reminded me of the formations popularized by the Roman Armies, but they had it right. Among the requirements when choosing a battle site was that you were upwind from an enemy. Ostensibly it was to drive dust into the eyes of your opponent but I think the fragrance from one thousand unwashed male bodies, in need of deoderant, would have knocked the enemy senseless and vulnerable.

08 IMPERIAL AR

[OOO] People of AR, I have decided to pull the plug from AR. I see lack of leadership is causing people to be hurt and although everybody in their own way is trying to maintain the situation AR is falling apart. I am sorry that due to rl issues I am not able to continue anymore, and that I could not find some one to take over. I and a few people, they know who they are and I value their efforts highly, have tried our very best. Donations given will be returned and the sim will be rented or sold. Please pick up your belongings as soon as possible. Items not picked up within next week will be returned at the end of the week.

The sim will either be sold or rented.

I hope to see you all soon in better circumstances, and roleplay along upcoming roleplay lines. May the PK be with you all.

hugs and kisses

09 TARNWALD

FIRST SWORD OF JAHESA KILLED IN TARNWALD - UBAR OF TURIA LOST HIS DUEL

by the editor

A group of warriors, obviously from Turia and Jahesa, and some mercs intruded the city of Tarnwald, asking for the arrest of the coin merchant Rarius Yuroki.

[16:39] Saint Lokia Spiritor (lokia.spirit0r) began to smile widely "I see! What crimes did he commit exactly?"

[16:40] Dhaego (cernus.coba) [First sword of Jahesa]: Yes I was sure of it we had met before the Captain and I I thought watching what was going on

[16:40] Bleu Infinity looks to Lokia "Captain, he has created a false Southern Trade Alliance"

[04:44] Lokia Spiritor: [16:44] Saint Lokia Spiritor (lokia.spirit) yet again, began to nod his head on up and down slowly "I understand entirely, but let me get this straight, you've come to my city, before not only myself, but Kylar..... and Astraeus, wanting to arrest one of the respected members of our city?"

[16:46] Dhaego (cernus.coba): Speaks He is a respected Member of Olni and another Port as will Thus he has no loyalty

[05:08 PM] Finn Snowfall looks to the man " Thank me later for defending your life , citizen " . And with that he moved on [05:08 PM] Yuroki Uriza shouts: I will for sure!

The First Sword of Jahesa thought he was tough with all the men behind him. When he and his men were bound in chains he cried for a duel against a warrior of Tarnwald - but lost.

[05:17 PM] Finn Snowfall shrugs " DEATH TO THE ENEMIES OF TARNWALD ! " he shouts out loud , and with that he drove his spear through the man's head , crushing it , piercing it and ramming the metal tip into the ground below " That's what you get for running your mouth and challenging me " he commented with a smirk.

After some ahns an huge amount of Warriors of Turia and Sulport arrived at the gates of Tarnwald.

Darius, the Ubar of Tuira, challenged a commander of Tarnwald - but lost the duel too.

Tarnwald decided to show him mercy; Darius was told to leave the city with his men; and to think twice about trying to hunt an honourable citizen of Tarnwald in the future, the red caste of Tarnwald decided to be less merciful to him next time.

TO THE WARIORS OF TARNWALD - PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

The warriors of Tarnwald who were involved in saving my life will get a double tarn from Imperial Ar as a gift each (which is 4 gold tarns of Tarnwald worth). Please contact Rarius Yuroki at the bank of Tarnwald.

12 FOREST PORT

POLICE ON GOR? EH?

For one thing, had now formed a Council Guard, with its distinct livery, that was now recognized as a force of the Council, and, in effect, as the police of the city. The Arsenal Guard, however, perhaps for traditional reasons, remained a separate body, concerned with the arsenal, and having jurisdiction within its walls. For another thing, the four Ubars, Chung, Eteocles, Nigel and Sullius Maximus, their powers considerably reduced during the time of the unsuccessful coup of Henrius Sevarius, had apparently resigned themselves to the supremacy of the Council in the city. At any rate, for the first time in several years, there was now a single, effective sovereign in Port Kar, the Council. Accordingly, its word, and, in effect, its word alone, was law. A similar consolidation and unification had taken place, of course, in the realm of inspections and taxations, penalties and enforcements, codes and courts. For the first time in several years one could count on the law being the same on both sides of a given canal.

26 TRADE

15 TRUE SOUTHERN TRADE ALLIANCE

The True Southern Trade Alliance has 17 full members now and two associate members from the Vosk Region. Five more cities want to join or are pending members.

The True Southern Trade Alliance has nothing to do with the so called false "Southern Trade Alliance" of Turia, Vigo and Sulport, which was a front company of Fina in the past. The true STA boycotts the trade with these cities.

16 MONTHLY MEETING OF THE SOUTHERN TRADE ALLIANCE ASSEMBLY IN VICTORIA

The assembly of the true Southern Trade Alliance met at Victoria, the head quarters of the Vosk League. The representatives of southern gorean cities and their associates voted unanimously for the city of Kamras as new member of the true STA.

Important topics of the meeting were the trade reports, the great caravane of the STA and the Kanda leaves trade.

17 HOUSE OF YUROKI COMPANIES (HOY)

Trade reports made by HoY scribe slave Moon

FREE PORT OF DECADENCE

An incredible trip to Decadence, many people came out and saw the baskets and many new items for sale. Black wine beans and garlic were the top sellers in Decadence. We will certainly go back to Decadence, waving and wishing them well.

GENESIAN PORT

The day was bright and cheerful and off to Genesia Port we went. We set up in record time, and made the soup with the wonderful tahari spices, we had free bowls before we set up. The palm oil and ale went well, some deals were made about fish. We loaded the tharlarion, waved goodbye, and wish them well. Looking forward to see them again.

RARN

A very exciting trip to the wonderful village of Rarns, Rarns is well known for its markets. They had never seen so many supplies come in, on the caravan. Honey and black wine were the top sellers. Perfume bottles and baskets also sold, and every one loved the new birds. We wished them well, and set of on our travels.

LANDA

OASIS OF NINE WELLS

Merchants are also required to further the interests of the house of hoy remuneration is negotiable.

Agents in other cities are also required .

[Quotes]

Whereas members of the caste of slavers are slavers, not all slavers are members of the caste of slavers. For example, I am not of the slavers, but in Port Kar I am known as Bosk, and he known as many things, among them pirate and slaver. Too, both Marcus and myself were of the warriors, the scarlet caste, and as such were not above taking slaves. Such is not only permitted in the codes, but encouraged by them. "The slave is a joy and a convenience to the warrior."

(Magicians of Gor pg, 315)

18 CURRENCY EXCHANGE RATES HOY BANK

The base unit of exchange rates are the coins of the city of Ar.

The gold tarn disk of Ar is considered to be the standard by which other cities, such as Ko-Ro-Ba and Port Kar. set the value of their own coinage. It is worth, generally, 10 silver tarsks, but standardization is slight due to the shaving or splitting of the coin as well as faulty scales that contribute to the debasing of the coinage. (pg. 155, Rogue of Gor)

19 LYRICS

by Akee (Darian Warcliffe)

AKEE'S POEM

Taken by Mambas...a Slaver's little treat...unwrapped, left nude...what fate would I meet?...chained to a pole..my owner towering high...hope the Mamba's not hungry...not really ready to die

Towering, dark skinned...with ivory teeth bright...she'd taunt me hard...that first heated night...a room's fire raging hot...heat cutting to the bone...alone she'd left me...pondering lust 'fore I'd go home

Soon we'd go back there...fresh prizes to claim?...take her as my trophy...swap victory for shame...dragged her home as MY own...displayed for all to see....ENJOYED IT IMMENSELY...just between you and me

A slaver staked down...topless, shown for all...pathetic resistance she made...enraged at my gall...rough skin touched tender...she'd twitch as I stroke...wonder if she thought...I'd give sweet Chocolate a little poke

But Gor's reigning Poet....is a bit more restrained...our story's just starting....like a song waiting a refrain...but I will tell you this...I should have said so from the start...I truly enjoyed licking...MY little Chocolate Tart!

CURULEAN AUCTION HOUSE

The major auction house, the Curulean, contains the great block. It is a great mark of prestige among slave girls to be selected for sale from the great block in the Curulean, and girls tend to compete viciously among themselves for this honor. To be sold from the Curulean great block is almost a guarantee of a rich master, and a luxurious pleasant life, though it be, of course, only that of a slave. As at many of the larger markets, there are Musicians near the block, and a girl is given enough time to present herself well. (Assassins of Gor , pg. 108)

22 MYSTERY OF A MASTERS NAKEDNESS

by HoY slave Blanca

[05:02] blanca (elevation25.faerye): walks past the Masters and Mistress and gives a wave "tal to you "eyes boggling at the Masters ass as she passes wondering if he really is naked or is that what she wants to see

[05:34] Tara (tara.knelstrom) glances at the naked man as she passes and pauses in her footsteps. "Greetings, Master...ummm...do you need help dressing or something?" she asks him, sort of hesitantly.

[05:35] blanca (elevation25.faerye): ahh thank you kajira , blanca thought her eyes were playing jokes on her

[05:36] Terrible Jon (jonterror): He placed his hands wholly to his hips as he peered inside into the armory shop that displayed tunics and clothing when he heard the voice of the slave. "Is that what the slaves truly think?" He murmured without even a glance

[05:37] Tara (tara.knelstrom) smiled at the other slave before looking back to the man. She wasn't quite sure she understood what the man was saying, but he'd spoken low, so she might have misunderstood. "What do we think, Master? Usually no one asks, to be honest." she said with a laugh. "So did you need any help, Master? Or were you just having naked day?" she grinned over at the other slave as she spoke.

[05:38] blanca (elevation25.faerye): giggles quietly not making any noise, thinks its a very good idea for Masters to walk about about, letting it all hang out.

[05:40] Terrible Jon (jonterror) He turned around quickly but suddenly paused with the words in his mouth as there seemed to be a growing spectacle before him of two eyeful slaves. He pushed the words out. "Do you think that men are incapable of dressing themselves?" He came off rather eerily cool with little but a ghost of a smile touching at the corners of his lips. "Do you know why i am naked?"

[05:43] Tara (tara.knelstrom) gave a one shouldered shrug and her lips twisted as she thought about it. "No, I think most men are capable, Master. But some might like help. I wouldn't know which kind you are, based on just a short meeting. And then again, you might have gotten drunk at the den and then lost your clothes...in which case, I could maybe help you look." she smiled to him again, not sensing any real danger...yet. She shook her head to his final question. "No, Master. I don't know why...but I'd love to hear the story, if you are up for the telling." Maybe he had a bad headache from over indulgence of paga or something...and maybe their voices where just making it worse...Tara couldn't know.

[05:45] blanca (elevation25.faerye): he is a cheery Master, laughs quietly again , wouldn't want to upset him and get chased away, will enjoy the view for a little while. "blanca will help Master", giggling a little louder this time and trying to stop her shoulders going in tune with her giggles. Wonders why he is naked and also wonders if we can expect to see him naked here on a regular basis. My sisters will also enjoy the view for sure. She waits to hear his answer and wont say a lot as this kajira is worried like me , he may chase us ,, "whoo"

[05:54] Terrible Jon (jonterror) He dropped his hands from his hips "That's a shame because i don't feel like telling it right now. " He said and slowly turned back around looking for something he could use or rather was window shopping for when he got himself some coin to buy some wears. "I don't need any help, unless you know of anything i can temporarily cover up with..." He added

[05:58] blanca (elevation25.faerye): moves in for a better look

[06:02] Tara (tara.knelstrom) nodded, as the man seemed to want his privacy. Maybe he didn't like being naked and that she'd brought attention to the fact. "I'm sorry to have bothered you, Master. There's some curtains around the corner, at the entrance to the den. They might make a temporary kilt..." she suggested, though she wasn't going to go pull them down herself. She'd leave that to a free. "I know how to sew though, if you are ever in need of something mended or something..." she offered up to be friendly. The man didn't seem to respond well to friendly gestures she'd decided. "In any case, I wish you well, Master." and she started to move off, unless she was stopped. She waggled her fingers to the other slave.

[06:04] blanca (elevation25.faerye): standing eager to hear his reasons and also getting a good look, "oh" listens to his reasons, puts her hand on her chin, "that is a very good reason Master, this kajira will certainly have a good day today," lips curling into a big smile, "dont bother to cover up, Master" contented slave goes off to finish her chores in a happy mood, smiling to herself and wondering still if the other kajira was right and it was a night in the Paga Den and a few alcoves and prankster Masters who stole his clothes...."Safe Paths Master" walks away not attempting to hide her smiles.

[06:05] blanca (elevation25.faerye): runs off to finish chores

23 BABY EXLORES PART III

Honey was playing and looking around herself, when a faint flicker of the scent of a sleen tickled her senses. She had never before encountered such an animal, but instinct and the predator-scent gave her the warning she needed.

As the sleen sprang forward Honey also leaped. Slender but powerful little legs carried her far enough forward that the beast's claws and teeth closed on empty air a scant hairsbreadth behind the small Priest-King. Her instinct saved Honey and just as the beast gathered itself for a second leap, honey released a sharp acidic cloud of noxious fluid.

24 PILGRIMAGE

The pilgrimage is a thrilling idea for role playing in Second Life Gor, it is the role play background itself and is a way for pilgrims to explore the amazing and wild world of Gor more or less in safty.

Pilgrims to the Sardar mountains have to endure endless journeys, have to travel through dangerous regions and visit a lot of cities, villages and camps.

The pilgrimage is not only an idea for the pilgrims, it also enriches the entire world of SL Gor.

KNOWLEDGE

25 FREE WOMEN AND VEILS

by Sophiaa Farella

The following is a compilation of quotes from the books of Gor concerning the veils worn by the Free Women of Gor.

26 BTB - AND SHOULD IT BE MODIFIED?

A White Paper Dealing with what is 'By the Books' role play, and should it be modified.

In a recent summary of Gorean Sims published by the site "Cartographers and Explorers of Gor", the following definitions of role play styles were listed:

- BTB: "by the books":

the Gor sim does not allow "femlaws" (female outlaws, female pirates, female mercs), the sim does not allow free women to carry bows and swords

- BTB(C): "by the books (compromise)":

The Gor sim allows female outlaws/mercs, but they can fight only as a free woman (daggers, hair pins only and need to emote it) or must be dressed as men. Examples in the books: Tharna (Tribesman of Gor) or the free women hunting a slave "She carried a short yellow bow, of Ka-la-na wood" (Beasts of Gor)

GE: "Gor evolved":

The Gor sim allows/does not forbid female fighters (female fighters are not mentioned in the books of Norman except panthers/talunas) Other examples for "Gor evolved": the sim allows panthers, but is not part of the northern forest. Or: the Sims allows bonds but it is not part of Torvaldsland. Or: the sim belongs to the Tahari but allows tarns. Or: the sim allows non Gorean clothing (for example jeans and chain mail, plate armor for men or women with high heels).

Notice that the primary basis of interpretation for the style of play revolves around what women can or cannot do, which is understandable since the books are misogynist in nature, and most likely the most adamant of SL's Gor life-stylers and role players, have a similar mindset. While that does not present a problem -- we are after all dealing with escapism in both the books and role play -- the narrow outlook thus engendered limits role play in other areas either ignored, or not properly defined in the books. This deals with both infrastructure and social interaction.

Lets look at some examples of this: The books tell of the development of Stabilization Serums over the period of hundreds of years by physicians of Ar and Ko-Ro-Ba. These serums slow or halt the aging process, which solution is to be found in the ends of the chromosomes – the telomeres – and in an enzyme that forms them – telomerase. Such scientific discoveries require a substantial infrastructure of both prior genetic knowledge and instrumentation, none of which is dealt with in the books -- or in SL medical role play, which remains on a simplistic herbalist level.

Or let us look at something ore basic -- metal. It exists on Gor -- in the form of swords and spears and arrow heads. These can all be created in a 'middle age' culture in blacksmith shops using reasonably advanced but very laborious techniques to produce elemental carbon steel in ovens fueled by no more than charcoal. While the process is not described, the Caste of Metal Workers is: "A sub caste of Artisans they are concerned with the production of most metal items made on Gor. Some of the sub castes under this one would include: Sword makers, Armorers, and those that work with blacksmithing or farrier work repairing wagon wheels and shoeing Gorean draft and riding animals".

But we also have a wonderful description of the city of Ar: ".Its walls, its countless cylinders, its spires and towers, its lights and beacons, the high bridges are lit by lanterns and connect many of the towers the sight is unbelievably exciting and fantastic, particularly as seen from the more lofty bridges on the roofs of the higher cylinders. It has a set of double walls, made of white marble, the first is 300 feet high and the second 20 yards from the first is 400 feet high". Now are we to assume that these fantastic structures were created without the use of architectural steel beams and reinforcements, items that could certainly not be made in a blacksmith shop. Bear in mind that largest building ever constructed in ancient Rome was the coliseum, essentially a circular wall, 142.5 feet in height, reaching that only by series of three levels of arches - a methodology not suitable for the construction of high cylinders or flying bridges between them.

Yes --if there is one thing that can be said about the books is that they are full of anachronisms, or at the very least unexplained corroborating support for stated facts. Further, since Mr. Norman can never be accused of rounded character development in the novels, a similar situation exists in the social behavior and human personality restrictions that we as role players act out on a daily basis. Example as Mr. Norman would have us believe:

Martha, a free Woman of Gor watches with trepidation as one of the raiders enters her home, engages her companion who is attempting to defend her and the children, and bested by the attacker. She sees the sword leave his hands, fly through the air, and land at her feet. Knowing Free Women are not allowed swords, she ignores it, and takes out her hairpin in preparation of defending herself and her brood. No matter, if she is unsuccessful she can look forward to a long and humiliating slavery serving her captor naked and in chains, something she has secretly wished for deep in her heart.

Well BTB does not always make sense, BTB(C) does not answer the questions, and GE is unacceptable to most role players. Something in between might be desirable to consider -- possibly BTB-Interpreted. Accept the stated items of the books, allow for what is needed for them to exist. Accept the overall societal behavior described, allow for human personality, individualism, and some degree of free will. That would make for a more rounded and satisfactory role play.
