02 EDITORIAL

A warm welcome to the pages of the 93rd volume of the NEW VOICE OF GOR !

Trade on Gor was the driving force of cities without it there would have been less conflict and less interaction between cities. Trade alliances were formed and contributed to the intrigue between areas of the planet. Wars were fought between cities and between alliances. Trade however was still carried on. To enable all this the merchants formed their own laws and rules with their own magistrates to enforce the law the merchants hired mercenaries and also used city guards. Just my two copper tarsk bits.

Rarius Yuroki
Editor of the NEW VOICE OF GOR

(OOC) FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION

Is the NEW VOICE OF GOR OOC or IC?

This newspaper is available IN CHARACTER at message boards in several cities. But it has OOC parts and IC parts which can be identified although many people mix both. We try to keep the two separate. But if you start a storyline based on an IC article of the NEW VOICE OF GOR it would be useful for a moderator to have a log where you have read the message ICly.

The NEW VOICE OF GOR can be true or false, propaganda or journalism like on earth. There is no freedom of the press on Gor. Why let the truth get in the way of a good story?!

"Goreans were not always fooled by posts on boards.
Those who control the public boards, it is said, control the city.
But I was not sure of this.
Goreans are not stupid.
It is difficult to fool them more than once. They tend to remember."

## ALL OVER GOR

03 (OOC) THE INITIATES TRILOGY

After countless hours and the work of many Initiates, it is ready: The Initiates Trilogy. These three books are full permission and meant to be distributed freely.

1. The Book of the White Caste

This volume is meant to replace the "Priest Kings Book" originally put out by Nikoli Nicholls. If you have one, you may delete it (or keep it as historical artefact) as this book replaces it, AND updates the information through Book #33. The book has been REVISED to remove "Luther Scrolls" references and ALL references are backed up with BTB quotes.

2. The Book of Liturgies

This is a compendium of services, prayers, blessings, rituals and sacrifices. The liturgies contained are NOT By The Books. They are extrapolations written by a trained religious historian (Master's degree in Medieval Theology) and may be used as you wish... or not used.. Or cribbed from to create your own services.

3. The Initiate Caste Handbook.

This is a comprehensive Roleplay Guide giving you the reasons, the characterizations, motives, methods and descriptions to help you create your character as an Initiate. The book contains chapters on how to RP a White Caste member, what their duties and responsibilities are, what kinds of Initiates are in Gor (all backed up with quotes from the books) and best of all, a current notecard on WHERE to find skins, robes, tools, supplies and more needed BY Initiates. This book contains nearly everything needed for a new Initiate to establish himself. Please do not give this Handbook to non-Initiates. Our Caste OUGHT to have secrets!

06 PORT OF OLNİ

THE SLAVE'S CORNER

A satiric look at life on this wonderful planet of Gor

By Teal Razor ~ Slave to Siri Emerald Jr. Captain Port Olni Scarlet's

GRRRRR....I CAN'T STAND THAT PERSON

By Teal Razor ~ Port Olni Correspondent

I have made that statement many times since being captured and taken to Gor. The variety of reasons why I might think that someone is just not my cup of tea can be numerous. For the sake of brevity I will define those who have annoyed the excrement out of me in the past and demonstrate how you too can overcome this malady without the use of heavy medication and extensive psychiatric analysis. I took the time to look up Linnaeus' system for putting Latin names to flora and fauna. Following his nomenclature I found the equivalent species in Gor. In some instances I have had to improvise as Linnaeus was never privy to some of these baffling species.

Here we go:

Incessantia Natterolea subspecies Annoyaeolis: In the Gorean this translates as Annoying Incessant Natterers. I think you have probably been within earshot of this species. They are given to trumpeting their every existing moment. Whether it is the tuna fish sandwich they had for lunch or the lousy night's sleep they had last week..Incessantia feels the need to inform you of everything that is going on in their ADD (Anxious Dread of Death Syndrome) brains. I think this species needs to evolve so that a label appears on their foreheads warning those in the community of their proximity.

Non sequiturus subspecies Goreolis: Loosely translated in the Gorean - Non Sequitur spouting Gorean. Everything they say, "does not follow". I have seen this species in action where ever I go in Gor. They feel it necessary to enter a conversation ass-backwards. Even though they have not "heard" any of the conversation that is currently taking place and enter the exchange in this manner:

Resident#1: Do you know when the barrels of Thentian Blackwine beans will arrive on the dock?

Resident#2: I have not the foggiest...does anyone here know of the ships arrival time?

Non sequiturus: I am clearing out my inventory...I just found a jock strap I did not know I had and I ate a tuna fish sandwich for lunch....

Resident#1: Rubs chin with confusion and cants head in Non sequiturus' direction....

Resident#2: Scratches balls and walks away.

Ignoramii Spectacularis subspecies Stupidea: This is a truly remarkable species and bears further study. I would be loathe to demonstrate my lack of knowledge to the general populace and instead choose the Socratic method of learning. When you get right down to it, Socrates said, and I am taking much poetic license here, "if you don't know anything, keep your fookin' mouth shut." Or take some lessons in the workings of Gor and ask lots of questions. A recent and incredibly wrong use of a Gorean term had a slave reeling in the commons area of Olni. If you have run into Ignoramii Spectacularis you will no doubt recognize a face palming moment as this:

Ignoramii Spectacularis: "Black Wine for me, girl, as I have need to get stinking drunk."
Slave serving the Ignoramii: nods her head and asks "Would that be the special black wine then Master?"

I say, good save.

Giggleatea subspecies Femalae: The Gorean dictionary translates this into "The Giggler of the female persuasion." Now don't tell me you haven't heard the call of Giggleatea. Their habitat is in the Gorean wide communication tool called Skype. It is here they are heard at their level worst.. and continuously let fly a non melodious cackle of epic proportions. Their crazed laughter, at one knows not what, interrupts sentient thought to the utter dismay of everyone around them. Be forewarned, when approaching this species it is advisable to wear ear plugs.

There are more to be sure... take this species of Warrioliem...

Warrioleum Pussius subspecies Scarlati: Looking this up in the Big Dic of Gor...big dictionary...I find it translates to Scarlet Caste Warriors promoted beyond their abilities. When this species is put to the test in battle or a raid, collateral damage is certain to take place. They are known for getting in the way of victory over the enemy and killing their fellow soldiers with friendly crossbow fire. If you want to experience proximity to this species, BYS, bring your own sword. You will need it to slay Warrioleum Pussius and then defend the city against the raiders which certainly will be easier once Warrioleum is dispatched.

Noobius Avatareae subspecies Facepalmius: Does this species need any explanation..Noobs who provoke face palming at every juncture. The males of the species walk around with their prim cocks in their hands seeking a willing female of any species to fornicate with. The female of the species seem to have large feet that do not fit their shoes. Are they not irritating or what?

HOW MANY PERSONALITIES DO YOU HAVE?

By Teal Razor ~ Port Olni Correspondent

When you go into your clothes closet in Lindenlandia in the morning and pick that article of clothing to express your "Persona of the Day", do you find yourself wondering if you will dress as a man, woman, or alien? Now you may not understand what I am alluding to but I will tell you I knew a slave in that great city of Port Olni, who had no fewer than 42 "outfits". She took delight in "sewing" new "outfits" and giving them all names. In fact, I came up with a name for a citizen of Gor once. I told this slave that the guy was a Prickasaurus Giganticus. She immediately went out and "sewed" together another suit of clothes and called this "suit", "Prickasaurus Giganticus". She did not hesitate to put this new suit on and expose this "personality" to the world. As she did so, I shielded my eyes from the rather enormous appendage dangling between his thighs.

Okay, lets not beat around the Tor shrub. If you open your closet and see more than two personalities in there, you have exceeded good taste and logic. Maybe you need to box up some of this "clothing" and make a charitable donation to the less fortunate.

07 TARNWALD

PROPAGANDA WAR IN TARNWALD

by Wendie

"The high council is corrupt" or "the high council is Oppressive" - so the posters say in Tarnwald everywhere, then a notice that "only the hero can save the citizens". Even the priest kings have sided with the Hero, they even proclaim its his birthright.

All this was recorded before paint was daubed across it another sign: "RESIST - Join the resistance support Hero for Ubar" is another bill posted outside the merchants stores.

The joining must be by invitation because there are no joining instructions.

Notices defaced with cheap jibes its time to worry just what are our Council is doing ,im sure they are not the ones defacing the notices ,they would have torn them down.

What is the council going to do? What is the hero's next move?

The only thing this will do is affect trade, HOY expects the price of gold to soar., "have you stored your gold safely"?

Will we have an Ubar any time soon or will the Council strike back? We can only wait and see...

TARNWALD COUNCIL DELIBERATES A REQUEST

by Anonymous

Raised voices were heard in the council chambers of Tarnwald as the petition from Avhir Allegiere to be made administrator was discussed.

With some parties steadfastly supporting the self proclaimed Hero of Tarnwald, and others blaming him for riots and civil unrest, bitter argument ensued.

The High initiate sang the praises of the hero, claiming him to be a sign from the Sun God that Tarnwald would enter a new and more powerful age, conquering new vassal lands, and keeping the city state safe from the threat of the kur invasion. He had already defeated one kur ship singlehandedly after all.

Had the warriors not defended the city up till then? Had not every one of them shown bravery and valor in keeping it's citizens safe? The Captain of the Red Caste seemed remarkably reticent on the matter.

Accusations of corruption followed, and assertions that the sun, wasn't the only shiny gold thing in play. The man was of House Allegiere, already under suspicion for perverting the course of justice, and quietly dispensing with key witnesses to a murder case.

Rumors of visits to other lands were put forth, stories of failures in diplomacy at Randal's Landfall told. With Avhir in power, surely war would descend upon them all in none too short a time.

While peasants protested in the streets against the council, discussion turned to vehement argument, lasting hours, the vote held over for one day then another.

When it came, the decision turned on a single vote, the council split. The application rejected - barely.

09 VIGO

RANDOM THOUGHTS

by Σοφία Farella

I had barely gotten the last edition of the paper done when Treve swooped in and raided the city. Several of us were sitting in the cafe when the alarm sounded. In, what seemed like the blink of an eye, there were enemy Warriors grappling over our walls.

It all happened so fast, but I remember standing and screaming "RUN!" then seeing the Free Women and slaves scatter.

I followed Lady Meyru, and Lady Chelsea followed close behind me. I'll not put into print where Lady Meyru led us, in the event a hostile city somehow got a copy of this edition, but it made me realize that when I came to Vigo, no one showed me where to hide and I can only presume that I'm not the only one.

Since the raid, I have learned of one other place but I would like to see someone, who knows where they all are, share that knowledge with everyone who wishes to know. Perhaps assign someone to make sure that each new citizen is shown the various places within their first few days of joining.

Just as a side note, I found it interesting that there is at least one person in Treve who still feels a sense of loyalty or maybe just some deference toward me, because of my former position there. I'm not sure who it was, but one of the raiders captured my girl, ruby, then when he found out that she was mine, he let her go.

THE UBAR OF TURIA OFFERING A REWARD AGAIN

Breaking news from Genesian Port:

The Ubar of Turia arrived in Genesian port and offered 2000 gold tarn for the head of Rarius Yuroki .

Two warriors of Tarnwald arrived there in company with me, as I wanted to talk business with the merchants of Genesian Port.

A warrior of Tarnwald challenged the Ubar of Turia but lost his duel. The Ubar of Turia did nothing when the warrior from Tarnwald was down, but left, perhaps he was scared because the other warriors was Randal the Intrepid.

15 TRUE SOUTHERN TRADE ALLIANCE

The True Southern Trade Alliance has nothing to do with the so called false "Southern Trade Alliance" of Turia, Vigo and Sulport, which was a front company of Fina in the past. The true STA boycotts the trade with these cities.

The monthly meeting of the true Southern Trade Alliance (STA) took place in the City of Tor. The results are confidential.

The Assembly adopted a new Magna Carta:

THE TRUE SOUTHERN TRADE ALLIANCE OF GOR

The Citizens of the TRUE SOUTHERN TRADE ALLIANCE, in league to form a more perfect coalition, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for trade with safe passage, promote the general well-being, and secure the Blessings of the Priest Kings to ourselves and our Posterity, do prescribe and validate this:

We proclaim to work together towards trade support to unify the south against invaders seen from any entity especially from the North that disrupts our mutual trade investments within our Ports, Cities and Oases, for peace and prosperity and the protection of our trade routes.

The Parties to this Agreement,

Recognising that their relations in the field of trade and economic endeavour should be conducted with a view to raising standards, large and steadily growing volume of real income and effective demand, and expanding the production of and trade in goods and services,

Recognising further that there is need for positive efforts designed to ensure that developing cities, secure a share in the growth of trade commensurate with the needs of their city.

Being desirous of contributing to these objectives by entering into reciprocal and mutually advantageous arrangements directed to the substantial reduction of tariffs and other barriers to trade .

Resolved, therefore, to develop an integrated, more viable and durable multilateral trading system encompassing the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade,

Determined to preserve the basic principles and to further the objectives underlying this multilateral trading system,

With the Blessings of the Priest Kings

We Agree as follows:

1. The cities will work together towards beneficial trade between member states.
2. An option for military support against cities not within the Southern Trade Alliance of Gor ( Each attack will be decided by member states ).
3. No member city will belong to the Southern Trade Alliance of Turia and its allies.
4. The alliance will endeavor to keep the peace and allow trade to flourish.
5. All member states will act at all times within the codes of the castes of each city.
6. Any dispute between cities will be settled in the court of the city which the dispute arose .
7. Any dispute involving a group of cities will be settled in a neutral city with three Legal scribes making the final decision if the cities cannot agree.
8. Each state will be responsible for their own coin and accept the coin of other cities. Each state will set their own exchange rate.

Agents in other cities are also required.

# CURRENCY EXCHANGE RATES HOY BANK

The base unit of exchange rates are the coins of the city of Ar.

The gold tarn disk of Ar is considered to be the standard by which other cities, such as Ko-Ro-Ba and Port Kar. set the value of their own coinage. It is worth, generally, 10 silver tarsks, but standardization is slight due to the shaving or splitting of the coin as well as faulty scales that contribute to the debasing of the coinage. 18 MERA'S AERIAL DANCE

by House of Yuroki's (HoY) slaves Mera and Blanca

07:59] Mera (meradoll) takes a deep breath and walks up to the suspended colorful silk ribbons. She rolled her shoulders to loosed up her muscles and stretched her arms to prepare a moment. she grabbed two of the ribbons together and with all of the strength she had worked so hard to gain up, she pulled her body up. Her feet cling to the ribbons behind her to add a little extra boost until she rose several feet from the ground over their heads. She held on tight then closed her eyes momentarily to find her center and get in the zone for what she had been practicing for 08:05] Mera (meradoll) she clasped the two ribbons and separated them, her arms spreading to either side of her body and quickly flicked her wrists, wrapping the ribbons around them so she was only held up by the strength of her arms. The struggle with her muscles caused her arms to tremble slightly then her eyes opened. She clasped the ribbons tight and rocked her body into a sway, weaving between the other ribbons as she did so. She adjusted her body into almost a piroet, one leg stretched out behind her and she circled it wrapping it in another ribbon. Her other leg was bent beneath her at the knee. She suddenly released one of her wrists from the wrapped clasp of its silk and her body picked up momentum. Her arm made a large circle on the side of her body as her head tilted back losing itself in the feeling of free spin. she lowered her leg and straightened her body to allow it to spin and wrap itself around in the ribbons.

[08:10] Ehren Faustus (ehren1): His eyes follow mera exclusively, the blue of them bright with interest as she poses and sways. The ribbons seem to hold her and caress her as her movements cause them to wrap and twine about her form. Every graceful curve is revealed beautifully and he is clearly entranced. "Your sister's work has paid off girl, this dance is marvelous."

[08:12] Mera (meradoll) She seemed rather concentrated, though she knew the man was there watching, as well as blanca. She didn't allow her words to sych her out. mera was very confident from how hard and how much time she put into such a dance. Her heart began to pound heavily for the next move. It would be only enough to scare them as her body was wrapped in the silks. she was able to clasp about three feet of the bottom of the silks to wrap around her forearm and moved her body to lay horizontally. The silk caressed her flesh before she forced herself into a spiraling horizontal display heading towards the ground only to stop herself with the silks wrapped around her arms and legs. The sudden halt she knew she had to use every muscle she had to hold up her whole weight, but she managed quite perfectly. Her breasts bounced free of the binding silks. she spread her arms and legs and suspended momentarily so close to the ground. she paused only a moment to look up and see if any gasps came from the spectators.

[08:19] Mera (meradoll): herself there only a moment and lowered her legs once again below her suddenly spinning again, her legs held out before her as if she were sitting. Her strength may have been unbelievable, but she knew it was more than mere strength. she crossed her arms behind her back and loosened the ribbons from her arms, pulling them to cross behind her back. She held them to create a sort of swing and wrapped her legs in two more ribbons sensually

[08:16] Ehren Faustus (ehren1) no gasp escapes his lips but he does jerk forward, his arms raising as if to try and catch her. He catches himself an ihn after she stops herself and he clears his throat with embarrassment to have reacted so obviously to her display. He pounds his fist on his shoulder in appreciation of her skill although his attention begins to focus more on her revealed flesh than technique as she continues to sway in the binding silk ribbons.

[08:25] Mera (meradoll) arches her back and leans back, her breasts bouncing softly, her hips began to rock and wiggle with her movements on the silk swing. her legs then wrapped, she still held fast to the swing portion of her ribbons but also clasped the ends of the bindings on her legs. Once she had a good hold, she released the swing and daringly, it would appear she were falling once more to the spectators but she was held up securely by her legs. from the release of the swing, she had enough momentum to swing in a long swoop up to the spectators, her wrists rolled into the silks holding tightly. she released one of her legs and held it out, stretching her legs apart so she was then only held up by one and her hands. she swayed to and fro and when she realized she had caught enough around her wrists, she released her other leg and daringly once more fell towards the ground, her body jerked to a halt suddenly at her clasp around her wrists. This time she was mere inches from the ground and a mere smirk crossed her

[08:25] Mera (meradoll): strawberry lips as she flicked her eyes up once more to her spectators for reaction while rocking her hips to and fro, her arms held above her head suspended as if she were floating over the ground

[08:27] Basa (greenway.avril): ahhh meraaa.... dancing kajira

[08:28] blanca (elevation25.faerye): she is fying kajira ... ww so close to the sky ,, yet so near to the floor

[08:28] Basa (greenway.avril): aye blanca flying kajira and fire kajira

08:30] Ehren Faustus (ehren1) grins as a similar trick is repeated, his eyes have caught on to the trick of wrapping different limbs to catch herself from fully falling so he does not startle again but the thought does cross his mind while she is low enough to the ground that he could reach out and easily pluck her from the ribbons and end this teasing dance. The train of his thoughts might easily be read on his face for he does nothing to hide them but for now he leans back against the wall again, deciding that he is enjoying the tease too much to end it early.

[08:35] Mera (meradoll) her lips smirked up at the Master that seemed to catch on to her tricks, but he had no idea what her finale would be. she winked and gazed over seeing the Master Basa approach to watch and her eyes lit up as she had promised to dance for him, she was happy he arrived. She kicked her feet to twirl into a back flip, again wrapping the silks around her arms and raising into the air with each flip until she lost momentum. she pulled her body vertical again revealing the silks that were wrapped up her inner thigh on the right, the left hung loosely. she pointed her free leg out and swung carelessly, then again releasing the ribbon from her arm and hanging only by her thigh only to clasp the ribbons around her wrist again as she hung upside down and loosened the clasp on her thigh as appearance to be flipping down the ribbons. She reached the climax and had to finish strong.....

[08:40] Ehren Faustus (ehren1) shakes his head in amazement at the controlled display. They play of her muscles under her skin is beautiful. He breaths in the moment, the joy of the performing slave in front of him, the crisp clean breeze on his skin, the warmth of the stones under his boots. It is a perfect moment and worth savoring. His eyes remain focused on the girl, clearly eager to see what she might do next.

[08:43] Basa (greenway.avril) ruffles blanca hair watching up to mera, at her dangerous dange grab her hairs and pull them just a while tighten his teeth seeing a difficult movement, then claps his hand over his shoulder.... * mera you are the best..* he yell out hoping she stays concentrate on her flying

[08:43] blanca (elevation25.faerye): blanca looks up quite proud at her sisters wonderful display ,, she is surely skilled at the ribbon dance ,, blanca is a little jealous of her sister but also proud of her,, "good dancing mera , you are surely the kajira of dance" claps her hands loudly

[08:45] mera (meradoll): her head and her hands touched the ground, balancing her position. Her strawberry lips parted and she beckoned out loudly through the city with pride "LA KAJIRA!!"

[08:45] blanca (elevation25.faerye): "LA KAJIRA!!"

KNOWLEDGE

19 PANTHER GIRLS BY THE BOOKS

by Azalea Montale

Some people think of black-furred leopards or a Carolina football team, but to Goreans the word "panther" takes on a very different meaning. Panther girls are one of the many distinctive societies that populate the world of Counter-Earth. They are almost a footnote to the overall society of Gor that focuses largely on the culture of the various cities such as Ar, Port Cos, Thentis, or Turia and their impact on the larger world around them. Similar to the slaves of Gor, which are only a very small percentage of the population in the books of John Norman, panther girls become a larger contingent in online communities. The books tell us precious little about the day to day lives of the panther girls, but it is who these women are that is of critical importance to understanding them.

(...) I leave you with words from John Norman dated fall 2001 from the official World of Gor website:

There are no "female warriors" on Gor. Gor is on the whole an honestly male-dominated realistic world. Indeed, this honesty is one of the things that commends it to romantic, heterosexual, hormonally normal women. Antimenite fantasies, man-hater fantasies, frustrate fantasies, and such, belong elsewhere. There are panther girls, and talunas, on Gor. There are not, however, women warriors. They are unhappy, frustrated, disturbed women half alienated from their sex. They tend to run in dangerous feline packs. Once captured and subdued it is said they make excellent slaves. "Bring me into the collar if you can!" "I am now yours, Master." If we cannot have women who are true to the Gorean world in the game the game is not true to the Gorean world. "Amazons" are for female frustrates, and perhaps male weaklings, or masochists. Ms. Conan does not belong in the Gorean world. Let her pump her iron elsewhere. In the Gorean world such a character would seem out of place, and silly.

## ONLINISMS OF THE WEEK

Slaves were common in Gor
FALSE

(they actually made up a small percentage of the general population in Gor. The numbers of slaves seen in SL Gor and on personal chains are grossly unbalanced and exaggerated compared to the books and unrealistic)

Normally only about one in forty or so Gorean women in the cities is enslaved. Free Gorean women, incidentally, enjoy a prestige and status which, it seems to me, is higher than that of the normal Earth woman." --Explorers of Gor, page 529

The kneeling position where the hands are crossed at the back of a slave is known as "Bracelets"
FALSE

(It is a variation of Nadu or the position of the pleasure slave. Bracelets is a standing position in which a slave assumes for her hands to be bound)

"The position of the Pleasure Slave, incidentally, differs from the position of both the free woman and the Tower Slave. The hands of a Pleasure Slave normally rest on her thighs but, in some cities, for example, Thentis, I believe, they are crossed behind her. More significantly, for the free woman's hands may also rest on her thighs, there is a difference in the placement of the knees. In all these kneeling positions, incidentally, even that of the Pleasure Slave, the Gorean woman carries herself well; her back is straight and her chin is high. She tends to be vital and beautiful to look upon." --Priest-Kings of Gor, page 41

"Bracelets," he snapped.

She put her head in the air and placed her hands behind her back. — Hunters of Gor, page 146

He had removed a pair of light bracelets, joined by about five inches of light chain, from his pouch. "Slave bracelets," he said. "Turn around, facing the door, your hands behind your back." — Kajira of Gor, page 132

"Bracelets!" snapped Ho-Sorl suddenly, and Phyllis flung her wrists behind her back, threw back her head and turned it to one side, the instantaneous response of a trained girl. — Assassin of Gor, page 214

"Bracelets!" I said in Gorean harshly.

The girl snapped to position, hands behind the small of her back, head lifted, chin up, turned to the left. In such a posture she may be conveniently put in bracelets and leashed. — Tribesman of Gor, page 78

There is red sugar on Gor.
FALSE

(while it may be true, red sugar is never specifically mentioned in the books. There are 4 colors of sugar with only two being specified. Red salt however, was specifically mentioned)

"Lola now returned to the small table and, kneeling, head down, served us our dessert, slices of tospit, sprinkled with four Gorean sugars." --Rogue of Gor, page 139

"She carried a tray, on which were various spoons and sugars. She knelt, placing her tray on the table. With a tiny spoon, its tip no more than a tenth of a hort in diameter, she placed four measures of white sugar, and six of yellow, in the cup; with two stirring spoons, one for the white sugar, another for the yellow, she stirred the beverage after each measure."

"All were laughing and drinking. Only Kamchak seemed solemn. Near him, in places of honor, at a long, low table, above the bowls of yellow and red salt, on each side, sat many of the high men of Turia, clad in their finest robes, their hair oiled, scented and combed for the banquet." --Nomads of Gor, page 262

Healing herbs found on earth were also common on Gor.
FALSE

(while it is common in sl gorean roleplay to fall back on the use of medicinal herbs since the fine details of Gorean medicines are not provided in the books, plants such as willow bark and agrimony are never specifically mentioned)
