02 EDITORIAL

A warm welcome to the pages of the 163rd issue of the NEW VOICE OF GOR !

Is it true? A fake? A trap? I got a scroll from Turia but I am unsure how to react. Would Goreans use an earth date to write something? Read more in the "all over Gor"-section....

ALL OVER GOR

03 BOUNTY REVOCATION?

by Rarius Yuroki, editor of the NEW VOICE OF GOR

I was reading some scrolls when a merchant entered my office. He threw another scroll on my desk which was apparently stolen from the desk of the new regent of Turia. I have read rumors that a man named Bounty, who was the regent of Turia, had resigned. This man, Bounty, had a twin brother who was killed during the war of Landa against the Vosk League, Turia and its allies. I was Ubar at that time in Landa.

As I read the scroll, I wondered about the meaning of what I was reading. Printed on the scroll was this missive: I am released of any and all crimes I may have committed against Turia in the past?

I do not remember any crimes. I hardly think that Landa defeating the Turian army and driving their allies back into Thassa is a crime at all. Well, anyway: It was a nice scroll.

Here is it:

CITY OF TURIA BOUNTY REVOCATION RARIUS YUROKI

The City of Turia
From the desk of the Regent

Date: 14th June 2014
Re: Contract of death.

From this date onwards and forever, The former Warrior turned unknown Caste status Rarius Yuroki <Yuroki Uriza> Of current unknown Home Stone or location of Gor, is released of all crimes committed against Turia in the past.

The Contract of Death placed upon his head is considered no longer warranted and is to be ignored.

Any future crimes, insults, slander or attempts to degrade The City of Turia (english version), Will be ignored and dismissed as unimportant.

Signed:
Blaze Shiras Constantine
(Blazied Resident)
Commander and Regent of Turia

05 THE FREE PERSONS OF GOR

by Pyrie Catoria
Caste of Scribes

Greetings Goreans,

So this week I was going to write about Free Women. And then asked a friend's thoughts on the matter. And she groaned and said "That topic has been beaten to death!". And in all honesty, it has been. Sort of. So this week I'm going to ramble on about them anyway, but also about the men of the community. How should everything tie together. You won't hear me talking a lot about slaves this week because as quite a few people have groaned, "Gor's all about them these days". I'm going to withhold my judgment on that particular thought and we'll see if next week the tables don't get reversed and perhaps have slavery as my main topic of the week.

You, of course, are welcome to refute these ideas, toss this essay into the trash, and I will not think the worse of you for it. Everyone is entitled to their own thoughts and beliefs, and I happen to be sharing mine. I hope you'll continue to read below and that perhaps this might give you food for thought. As one man says, arrive at your own conclusions.

Should there be anything you wish to discuss over this or other ideas, I would be happy to meet. Simply send word and such a meeting will be arranged.

Anyway, let's talk about the Free persons of Gor. Firstly, let us consider the most important aspect of Gor for the Free person, that which is the Home Stone. It is not just a rock, but the culture and traditions and history and community. A community of Free. The Home Stone is a family of citizens, as one amazing woman told me once. If people would stop the bickering about GE and BTB and recruiting and poaching and all of the rest of that silliness and focus on just this one concept, it would be interesting to see what might come of it.

Again, a Home Stone.....is a family of citizens. When a Free person swears to the Home Stone, they are pledging a life long commitment. When a Free person makes that commitment, it is to defend the Home Stone, to honor it and those who he or she shares the Home Stone with. The Gorean city-state was not like a city found on Earth. Much like the Gorean Free Woman is so much more than a woman of Earth, so to is the Home Stone. It is to respect the Free of your city and to believe that they belong there. After all, to pledge oneself to the Home Stone is not a right. It is not guaranteed. In truth, it is an honor bestowed upon each Free person of the city if and when the city feels that individual is ready.

It is not a light commitment. As stated above, it should be a lifelong choice. The choice of which Home Stone to pledge to is one of the top three decisions any Free person will make in his or her life time. The other two are which caste that person will seek entrance to, apprentice in, and one day become a full fledged member of, and whom that person will take as a companion. The three toughest choices any Free person will make, with consequences which shall reach on through that person's life time.

06 PORT OF OLN I

THE SLAVE'S CORNER ~ A Satiric View of Life on Gor

By Teal Razor slave of Siri Emerald Jr Port Olni Scarlet

BIZZY SLUT

By Teal Razor

I present for your perusal part three of - "She's Baaaaaaack". It is incredible how just a month, a hand, a coupla weeks and a few days can get you out of the loop. My senses have been heightened by my absence. My thoughts might not be interesting to all but I hope they will at least entertain some Masters and Mistresses out there and some slaves could possibly relate to them as well. Just when you think you have "figured someone out", they change everything about themselves down to their hair color and sometimes even their sex. It would be nice to know of these facts before you meet the person again. So one has to be acutely aware of these changes, so that social gaffes will not be committed. One must be diligent in finding out the gossip that is fresh and new.

Now that is not fair of me to say it is gossip, it is really a source of news. A citizen or slave needs to be forewarned about events that have occurred so as not to appear clueless in front of others. I once knew a Master who made the embarrassing blunder of talking about the relationship between his friend and his white silk slave in front of the his friend's companion. The Master was never warned of the fact that the free companion was never meant to know what was divulged. This social gaffe set off Defcon 3.

Gor has the lack of high speed communiqué's that Earth dwellers have. That in itself could be either a blessing or a curse. On Gor, we depend on the conspiratorial whisper, the furtive glance, the clandestine meeting to enlighten us about the "goings on" about town. It is amusing to find out "who shot who". Not that we wish death on anyone. Well there are those who wish death upon others and those that do, hire assassins to kill them. It is also amusing to see that the spelling of assassin starts with the word "ass". I have to stop a moment so that I can ponder that one.

The information that I was privy to had become common knowledge. It seems that everyone reads the same newspaper. I heard these news snippets from everyone. Most would say that I spill all these news bulletins into the scroll of the Voice of Gor. Mostly I just listen to all the "news" and put it together with my observations to create a blown up version of Gor life.

In fact, maybe there should be a 4 color publication called Gor Life. I like the sound of that. With the lack of a financial backer, it would be impossible to pull off and publish in a timely manner such as this scroll, The Voice of Gor, is.

Looking back over what I have penned in this scroll, it seems that I owe myself a slap in the face. My digression has turned into another story. Since my coming back to Port Olni, I have realized the importance of communication between Gorean's. Scrolls are really the only way to make sure that the words you want to communicate are written plainly. The person on the receiving end reads your words, if they can read, and knows that these are YOUR wishes and not someone else's. Scrolls passed from one to another can eliminate most of the puzzlement associated with dubious transmissions.

I have been told of slaves and free alike who have been sent to another city with a verbal message to speak into the ears of another. This is never a good way to handle your communications with others. The slave or the free person may have a faulty memory or decides he or she does not like the information you are imparting, in which case they will change the message to suit their needs. Now, if you cannot write in plain Gorean, all bets are off. You had best get someone who can write the scroll for you.

Thankfully, "White Out" correction fluid does not exist on Gor. To change the wording of a scroll, one would have to meticulously scrape minuscule fibers off of the portion of the paper that is infused with ink. If the amount scraped off makes an indent in the paper, it would be a sure sign that something has been altered.

And so to end this scroll, I will say, that if a message of yours gets misconstrued so that it creates a border skirmish, you better go in person to correct the information and not send an entire ambassadorial staff to do it for you.

The base unit of exchange rates are the coins of the city of Tharna.

The gold tarn disk of Ar is considered to be the standard by which other cities, such as Ko-Ro-Ba and Port Kar. set the value of their own coinage. It is worth, generally, 10 silver tarsks, but standardization is slight due to the shaving or splitting of the coin as well as faulty scales that contribute to the debasing of the coinage. 05 ABYDOS GRAND RE-OPENING

July 8th, 2014. 4pm

OVERVIEW

The Abydos Academy is similar in real-world terms to the TED Talks. Visiting speakers present an idea followed by discussion. Entirely embedded in a Gorean context, the TARN talks (Technology And Research Network) are designed to collect SL Gor players in Abydos for RP that is focused on matters greater than slave serves, the role of free women and the more familiar aspects of RP. Rather, the focus is on more existential issues, alongside issues of governance, morality and fundamental questions broaching the legitimacy of slavery or the validity of belief systems including the Priest Kings, for example. Newly-discovered plants and their medicinal properties are also examined.

Governing principles

1. All discussion is In-Character and embedded within a Gorean context
2. The aim is to bring thinkers from across Gor to present and debate fundamental principles of importance to Gorean life and thought such as:
 - good governance of cities
 - the role of free persons and slaves
 - discoveries of use to the people such as newly-discovered plants with medicinal properties
 - philosophical questions relating to the Pries Kings, without intruding into the domain of the White Caste
3. In gaming terms, the point of the project is to make Abydos a centre for RP involving people from across all SL Gor

Tired of having the city government or sim owner decide your caste leader?
Feel like you cannot 'move up' in your caste?
Would you like to have a say in who is your representative on the High Council?

Tired of being forced to work for the whole city?

The City of Vonda is a different kind of city. We believe all caste leaders should be elected by members of their caste. We believe you have the choice to work in a municipal capacity or work for a private employer. We believe you have the choice to work for yourself. The City of Vonda is a BtB sim where YOU define your role.

18 NORTHERN LIGHTS OUTLAWS (GE)

We're GE with BtB attitude, looking for good bows and great RPer.. or bad bows and great RPer. :P

Our philosophy on role play is to keep it fun. We try to follow the rules and go beyond just the minimum requirements ourselves and to not nit-pick others.

We have made our fort fun to raid - minimal locked doors and no balconies with invisible prim shoot walls. We have three rules in addition to the sim rules: Don't cheat, Don't be stupid, Keep it Gorean.

ABOUT THE NEW VOICE OF GOR

The NEW VOICE OF GOR is a weekly Gorean newspaper since 2011 - actual: volume four, issue 162.

Forerunners were the "Vonda Voice" (since 03-26-2009, issues 1-56, editor Verona Lorgsval), the "Voice of Gor" (since 07-14-2010, issues 1-133, editor Verona Lorgsval), the landa Times (since 2011, issues 1-71, editor Rarius Yuroki [Yuroki Uriza])

(OOC) FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION

Is the NEW VOICE OF GOR OOC or IC?

This newspaper is available IN CHARACTER at message boards in several cities. But it has OOC parts and IC parts which can be identified although many people mix both. We try to keep the two separate. But if you start a storyline based on an IC article of the NEW VOICE OF GOR it would be useful for a moderator to have a log where you have read the message ICly.

The NEW VOICE OF GOR can be true or false, propaganda or journalism like on earth. There is no freedom of the press on Gor. Why let the truth get in the way of a good story?!

"Goreans were not always fooled by posts on boards.
Those who control the public boards, it is said, control the city.
But I was not sure of this.
Goreans are not stupid.
It is difficult to fool them more than once. They tend to remember."
(Magicians of Gor)

Why is "publicare et propagare" the motto of the NEW VOICE OF GOR?

You all know that Goreans use message boards to spread news, announcements and gossip.

Such are found at various points in Ar, such as the vicinity of squares and plazas, near markets, and on major streets and avenues.

Books are rare on Gor and expensive. Paper is the essential trade good of the Rencers and they sell their wares on both the eastern and western edges of the Delta of the Vosk river. The NEW VOICE OF GOR is a collection of renece paper scrolls but the editor paid some message boards too to spread the newspaper. Gorean Public Boards sometimes made people angry. Those who control the public boards, it is said, control the city.

We took our motto from the Acta Diurna [latin: Daily Acts sometimes translated as Daily Public Records] on earth. The Acta Diurna were daily official notices in ancient Rome, a sort of daily gazette. They were carved on stone or metal and presented in message boards in public places like the Forum of Rome.

Acta Diurna introduced the expression "publicare et propagare", which means "make public and propagate". This expression was set in the end of the texts and proclaimed a release to both Roman citizens and non-citizens.
